TROUBLE STRIKES ANOTHER NAZI SHIP

Old Landing Gear Blamed for Accident Fatal to Longshoreman.

OAKLAND, Calif., Nov. 21.—(AP)—The death of an Oakland longshoreman aboard the German motorship Weser was set down as an accident by police who blamed it today on the use of old landing gear.

The victim, Nick Pesha, father of three children, was killed when a cable broke and a 12-ton boom crashed on the ship's deck. Forty-five minutes later, another cable snapped and a second giant wooden boom fell to the deck, narrowly missing three longshoremen. The 60 longshoremen working the cargo then left the ship, saying they would not return to their jobs until they were convinced their safety was assured.

Police Lieut. L. M. Carroll, after questioning ship's officers and longshoremen, said he was convinced both cable breaks were accidental.

Among the first visitors to the ship after the boom fell on Pesha was a group of investigators who had been examining a hole in the hull of the German freighter Vancouver. The Vancouver, crippled by an unexplained blast last November 3, was drydocked yesterday near the pier where the Weser was unloading.

Capt. Franz Voigt, master of the Weser, attributed the falling booms to accidental causes.

The Weser was the scene of a five-minute work stoppage Saturday by longshoremen who complained because the ship's master had forgotten to fly the American flag, as is customary. The flag was displayed and the men went back to work.

Chemists were expected today to examine scrapings from the Vancouver in an effort to determine what sort of explosive tore a six-foot hole in the ship's hull. Vancouver operators estimated the damage at $150,000.

Rock-a-Bye Baby

YONKERS, N. Y.—A youth stole a car here without realizing 18-month-old Marguerite Oliver, daughter of the owner, was dozing in a basket in the rear of the vehicle. In his flight the thief crashed into a truck, wrecking the car so badly he left it and fled on foot. When the worried parents arrived at the scene, a policeman led them silently to the smashed car. "Sh-h-h," he warned, pointing at the basket. The baby was still asleep.
