

NAZIS JOLTED BY PLANS FOR JEWISH COLONIZATION

Plans. "Won't Hitler be so enraged about Tanganyika he won't let any Jew out of Germany?" asked one anxiously.

Another Jewish leader said nazis already had informed Jews Hitler would not permit a single Jew holding a visa for former German East Africa (Tanganyika) or any other former German colony to leave the reich.

Another leader said: "This probably means new persecution to start with but of course that sacrifice also must be faced if only in the end we are allotted some place to start life anew."

New Decrees Hit Jews. Jews who, for meritorious service in Germany during the World War, had been permitted to wear their uniforms on solemn occasions, have lost this privilege.

Other decrees will have eliminated by the end of the year all retail business owned by German Jews. One-third of Jewish-owned stores will be taken over by non-Jews and the rest simply abandoned.

Present owners will not be permitted to salvage ready cash by sales or auctions. They have been told to "liquidate" and, with few exceptions, have been forbidden to operate their businesses during the time remaining before the decree wiping them out becomes effective January 1.

Jewish relief societies cannot care for tens of thousands who apply for help and the doors of many still are closed. No foreign relief societies have been established here.

Many Jews face the future not knowing where to turn even to live from day to day. They estimate 60,000 Jewish men have been sent to jail and concentration camps, leaving many families unable to replenish ready cash funds.

Nazis Suffer Trade Loss. But there was at least a temporary end to the wholesale arrests. And a recent sharp decline in German exports may prove a momentary life-saver at least for the Jewish export trade.

The ministry of economics, co-operating closely with Field Marshal Goering as chief of Germany's four-year plan, has been striving to convince Nazi leaders the sudden ejection of Jews from the export business may prove harmful to Germany's economy.

Goering's newspaper, the National Zeitung of Essen, declared a central bureau had "turned the exodus of Jews from Germany into regulated channels" but that foreign nations, particularly the United States and Great Britain, were blocking Jewish emigration from Germany although they have wide open spaces.

Lenient to Actors. Propaganda Minister Goebbels announced November 12 Jewish organizations would be permitted to resume activity.

The first result is to be a presentation tomorrow by Fritz Wharton, leading Jewish theatrical producer. He was released last Thursday from concentration camp and ordered to present a comedy "Shakespeare, although Jews complained they were in no mood for comedy.

Authorization to resume publication of announcements for the Jewish community, but without advertisements or news, was given the newspaper Juidische Rundschau.

A Jewish vaudeville troupe, on government orders, is to begin working November 26 with a farce called "Stewed Fruit."

Hardships Remain. The twin viceroy of "concessions" did not alter the basic issues—the Jews still must pay a $400,000,000 penalty for the annulment of Ernst Vom Rath, the Paris embassy secretary; plans for their mass emigration remain indefinite; they are ordered to sell their shops to Aryan proprietors

OPEN DOOR DOOMED, JAPAN INDICATES

China, a point raised by the United States government, "but the reason obviously was one of military necessity."

"Of the United States allegation Japanese boats were carrying Japanese merchandise in Chinese waters and refusing American orders, he asserted: "It is not true that our boats are carrying commercial cargoes. They are being used exclusively for military purposes and transportation of military supplies."

Sea Control Is Issue. Japan has held the Yangtze and other rivers can not now be opened safely to commercial navigation.

From the newspaper Hoch came the editorial declaration the question of the open door was not restricted to China but involved the ultimate domination of the entire western Pacific.

"The answer, said the paper, will be determined by who is 'master of the western Pacific'—reflecting the Japanese naval view control of Pacific ocean sea lanes is equal in importance to control of Asiatic mainland areas.

CHANGSHA FIRE KILLS 2,000 AS JAPANESE NEAR CITY. SHANGHAI, Nov. 21.—(AP)—A five-day fire which razed Changsha, capital of Hunan province, was reported today to have caused 2,000 deaths and brought the execution of three Chinese officials accused of starting the conflagration.

Commencing last Sunday, the fires, started in anticipation of the city's capture by a slowly advancing Japanese column, reduced Changsha to ruins.

Chinese officials at Chungking, the temporary capital, declared the fires started both accidentally and through the "premature zeal" of local authorities anxious to carry out China's "scorched earth" policy of leaving little of value to the invaders.

Japs Said Repulsed. The Japanese still were 40 miles north of the city, and Chinese army commanders reported Japanese attacks had been repulsed along the Yochow-Changsha railway.

At the same time Chinese said they had recaptured Thungyan, 50 miles east of Sianning, which is 50 miles south of Hankow. He asserted 500 Japanese had been killed in the engagement.

(Canton dispatches reported movements of Japanese troops indicated fighting was in progress somewhere near the southern metropolis which the Japanese captured a month ago.

(The Central (Chinese) news agency in Hongkong reported Chinese forces were forming a huge semi-circle around Canton, but there was no confirmation from other sources and some believed the Japanese movements were occasioned by activities of Chinese guerrillas.)

Han River Closed. Japan's monopoly on Chinese inland waterways was extended yesterday as military authorities in Hankow notified United States and other consular officials the Han river, great Yangtze tributary flowing through Hupeh province, henceforth was closed to navigation.

Only upon "special permission" of the Japanese army can vessels other than Japanese use this avenue of entry to Chinese interior markets. "Military operations" were given as the reason for the ban.

Reports from numerous sections continued to indicate Japan's economic exploitation program was following close on the heels of her military machine.

CRATER PARK LIQUOR ISSUE IS REVIVED. PORTLAND, Nov. 21.—(AP)—The Crater Lake National Park company has started its second legal attack on the right of the state liquor control commission to enforce the state liquor laws within the park boundaries.

The company's application for an injunction against the commission will be heard before a three-judge federal court here Friday.

OREGON'S GREEN PEA CROP EVALUATED. WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—(AP)—Oregon's 1938 green pea crop for manufacturing was valued at $16,999 by the bureau of agricultural economics.

Statistics showed that 20,450 acres were devoted to the crop, with an average yield of 1690 pounds to the acre.

scheduled general debate on the question of minorities in Europe.

The prime minister said the government would invite volunteer refugee organizations to send their own representatives to British Guiana, a colony with an area of 59,189 square miles on the north-eastern coast of South America, to make surveys.

Provided the results of these surveys are satisfactory, the government contemplates the lease of large areas of land on generous terms under conditions to be settled hereafter," he announced.

Chamberlain told the house the governor of Tanganyika had been asked to say whether land could be made available for leasing on generous terms "for the purpose of large-scale settlements to voluntary organizations concerned with refugees provided they undertake full responsibility of preparing the land and of settling refugees of suitable types as land is made available."

"The governor of Tanganyika," Chamberlain continued, "has replied expressing his readiness to cooperate in any scheme of settlement of refugees as far as existing obligations will permit."

"The governor has expressed the view the only suitable areas for large-scale settlements are likely to be found in the southern highlands and in part of the western province."

Other organizations Metcalfe named included the Militant Christian Patriots, Glendale, Calif.; the National Gentile League, Washington, D. C., Baltimore, Md., and Tacoma, Wash.

The National Liberty party, Tacoma, Wash.; National Protective Order of Gentiles, Los Angeles, the Tomahawks, Walla Walla.

Mostly "Racketeering". Under questioning, Metcalfe said some central agency apparently was instigating and helping to finance anti-racial and anti-religious propaganda in the United States.

He added at least 200 organizations were "disseminating racial and religious intolerance" and 75 per cent of them were "in the game for racketeering purposes."

He testified on two occasions unsuccessful attempts had been made to merge some of these organizations.

The Rev. Ralph Nollner of Houston, Tex., called a conference at Asheville, N. C., early in 1936, Metcalfe said, but some of the delegates "walked out" and help a "rump" conference.

Among the delegates, he said, was Howland Spencer of Hyde Park, New York, who recently sold his home, across the Hudson river from President Roosevelt's estate, to Father Divine, New York negro.
