UNUSUAL PARTY IS HELD AT MYRTLE CREEK

MYRTLE CREEK, Nov. 15.—C. J. Richey was host at a party at his home on 2nd street on Halloween which was no doubt almost the best one of the season. Blossom and Jimmy Gazley, who live across the street have a large yellow cat which is truly educated. His birthday is on Halloween and the children, assisted by Mr. Richey planned a big celebration. Each child invited had to bring a cat. Dorothy and Phyllis Hayes, escorted Mitzie, Arlene Mickelson was accompanied by Mitten; Richard Chaney was attended by Stuh and Homer Abbott and Jacky Fariss brought up the rear with Spike and Willie. The guest who was in the party, wearing a gala attire with a black sweater coat, and a boy pink straw hat—very chic—perched rakishly over his right ear. The guests all wore their fur coats. There was a roaring fire in the old fireplace and the room was decorated with autumn leaves, witches and hob-goblins peered from the shadows. A long table stretching across the room had a centerpiece of bright leaves with a big pumpkin jack-o-lantern in the middle. At each place a saucer for milk, a piece of chocolate, and a pat of hamburger was placed. A big old china pitcher with a cat climbing over the handle held the warm milk. Chairs were placed for the honored guests but the owners were obliged to sit first in order to preserve proper decorum. Almost as soon as the goodies were eaten it was discovered that there was real musical talent, heretofore unsuspected among the guests. Each kitten present knew instinctively how to render "Three Blind Mice," but like other musicians they were also temperamental, and throwing restraint to the winds some of them hopped onto the table, and from there to the top of the windows and doors. After the cats had enjoyed their luncheon the children feasted on popcorn prepared by Mr. Richey and a beautiful birthday cake baked by Mrs. Gazley. Then separating Spike and Willie who were engaged in a two-round bout they thanked Mr. Richey for their happy evening and went home, all wishing Gieger many returns.
