MISS MARGORIE COON AND ENOS HANDY ARE MARRIED ON THANKSGIVING DAY

A beautiful wedding was solemnized at high noon Thanksgiving day, November 24th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Coon at Dillard, when their daughter, Miss Margorie, became the bride of Enos Handy, Rev. C. E. Brittain, of the Methodist church in Dillard, performed the impressive ring ceremony in the presence of relatives and a few close friends.

The ceremony was performed in front of the living room window. The rooms were beautifully decorated with ferns and pink and yellow chrysanthemums.

The bride, charming in a floor-length gown of white rose point lace, with a corsage of white carnations, was given in marriage by her father, Miss Julia Lawrence, maid of honor, wore a frock of dark blue silk. Edward Handy acted as best man to the bridegroom. The bridegroom and best man were Oxford grey suits.

Following the ceremony the bride and groom were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Coon at Dillard. The bride is a graduate of the high school in Myrtle Creek, and is well known in this city. Dillard and Myrtle Creek. The bridegroom is a resident of Melrose.
