

MOTHER HELD IN INFANT'S DEATH

VANCOUVER, B. C., Dec. 14.—(AP)—A young mother was held without charge by police today, pending an inquest into the death of her three-month-old daughter, killed when she fell from the death of her arms and dropped 100 feet to a ledge of the Burrard street bridge spanning False creek, in downtown Vancouver.

The woman, well-dressed and pretty, walked into police headquarters last night and told police she had gone to the bridge contemplating suicide and then lost her nerve. The baby, she said, slipped from a shelf in her arms as she gazed over a bridge rail at the dark creek 150 feet below.

Sobbing and hysterical, she told officers under questioning that her husband was in Okalla prison farm, charged with breaking and entering a store at Princeton, B. C. She said she was without money and had no food.

any of her empire.

Bonnet quoted von Ribbentrop as replying Germany was "not interested" in Mediterranean problems although she remained loyal to the Rome-Berlin axis.

Ciano's response was said to have been that the Italian government denied responsibility for the "spontaneous" demonstrations in the chamber of deputies, newspapers and on the streets demanding French territory and Premier Mussolini alone could make any such claims formally.

FRANCE WON'T YIELD LAND, ITALY, GERMANY ADVISED

PARIS, Dec. 14.—(AP)—Foreign Minister Bonnet announced today France had informed both Italy and Germany directly she would never yield an inch of territory in response to fascist demands.

Bonnet's disclosure was made at a meeting of the chamber of deputies where he was questioned on Italian demands for Tunisia and other Mediterranean lands.

Deputies quoted Bonnet as saying he had told German Foreign Minister von Ribbentrop of the French determination when the Nazi leader visited Paris last week to sign the French-German friendship accord.

He was told, as was Foreign Minister Ciano by the French ambassador in Rome, that even if it meant war France would not give up

"BIG BILL" AGAIN SEEKS MAYOR JOB

CHICAGO, Dec. 14.—(AP)—It's vote round-up time again for William Hale "Big Bill" Thompson.

Chicago's three-time cowboy mayor has set out to corral the republican nomination for the city's biggest job at the February 20 primary.

The flamboyant 69-year-old politician, who, called international notoriety during 38 turbulent years in Chicago politics formally announced his mayoral aspirations last night.

In a gesture typical of the man's showmanship, "Big Bill" whipped his 10-gallon campaign sombrero onto the stage of the Medinah temple as a large crowd of friends cheered.

"The people think it is time for a change," he boomed.

And the crowd answered in song: "Happy days are here again; 'Big Bill' will be our mayor again."

Thompson's cowboy hat—the best known headpiece in town—wore an "anti-foreign war" slogan which denoted the latest of his many and varied campaigns.

The former mayor promised to lead the city back to prosperity.

"When Thompson was mayor the city employes never had a payless payday," he said.

Greeted by Three Aunts

Their three aunts, sisters of Mrs. Moore, met them at the train when they arrived yesterday.

First, all seven children and three aunts went to the apartment of Mrs. John Roedig, one of the aunts, who is custodian of a branch of the city library and has her quarters there. There she and the other aunts, Mrs. John Gresslein and Mrs. Harry Spicer, decided on the distribution.

The children are: Magdalen, 14; Lillian, 13; Louise, 11; Allen, 7; Grace, 6; Justina, 4, and Elizabeth, 2.

Magdalen and Justina were chosen to stay with the Roedigs, who have three children of their own, Magdalen, 20; Martha, 17, and Ann, 13. Magdalen Moore is called Madge, so there will be no confusion of names.

Mrs. Gresslein, who has no children of her own, took Elizabeth, Louise and Lillian.

Allen and Grace went to Mrs. Spicer, who has seven children of her own and three grandchildren.

Three of her children are married, however, and only four are living at home: Frank, 23; Conrad, 21; Charlotte, 17, and Richard, 11.

Zoo's Taboo

SAN FRANCISCO—Clyde Gay Dry wanted his own zoo—got some seals and lion cubs.

One of the seals reached for a fish in Dry's back pocket, missed aim. Dry went to the hospital to be doctored for seal bite.

Then one of the lion cubs barked for a piece of hamburger, missed. Dry had to have his little finger sewed back in place.

Now Dry is advertising a sale, hopes he won't miss. He doesn't want a zoo.

the case would be presented to the grand jury as soon as possible.

Agents of the federal bureau of investigation also declined to discuss the case.

High Bail Set

That the inquiry is considered important by federal authorities was indicated when high bail was set for the two men by U. S. Commissioner Head. Also, the prisoners were placed in cells on separate floors of the county jail.

Arrest of the pair came within two weeks of the seizure of Karl Allen Drummond, an airplane factory worker, who was accused of attempting to sell to Japanese agents plans of navy and army aircraft. Drummond's case has been set for trial December 22.

tering alien organizations and for widespread publicity about their membership and activities.

Chairman Dies (D-Tex.) announced the committee, its funds exhausted, would conclude hearings tomorrow.

Deportation Urged

Summarizing testimony during four months of hearings in a radio address last night, Dies urged the nation to be more concerned with "pro-Americanism" than with "anti-communism, anti-fascism and anti-nazism."

He called on the labor department to deport promptly communist, fascist and Nazi aliens in the country. Failure to take that action he said, is becoming a "national scandal."

Dies suggested persons who favor another nation over the United States should "book an early passage to the country of your affection."

He said the committee's inquiry had shown communists found it effective to penetrate existing labor unions, set up "front" organizations, and "bore from within" major political parties.

TWO MORE ALLEGED SPIES ARRESTED IN CALIFORNIA

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 14.—(AP)—Government agents worked in secrecy today as they prepared to take before the federal grand jury the west coast's latest "spy scare"—a case involving the Pacific coast manager of the official Soviet Russia travel bureau, and a former Berkeley, Calif., police officer.

Heit under bond of $25,000 each on espionage charges accusing them of sending U. S. naval intelligence documents to the Soviet are Mikhail Gorin, 34, coast leader of Intourist, Inc., and Iafis Salfah, former policeman who had been loaned to the naval intelligence because of his proficiency in the Japanese language.

Asst. U. S. Atty. William F. Palmer, while declining to apply the charges against the pair, said

SEEK RELEASE OF NILES AS DEFENDANT IN LEGAL FIGHT

PORTLAND, Dec. 14.—(AP)—The Portland city council instructed City Attorney Latourette to make every effort to obtain removal of Chief of Police Harry Niles from the list of defendants named yesterday by the American and State Federations of Labor and the Congress for Industrial Organization in their fight against Oregon's new anti-picketing bill.

The labor organizations inaugurated a civil action to restrain state and Portland authorities from enforcing the measure and named Niles in a complaint along with Multnomah county District Attorney James R. Bain, Sheriff Martin Pratt and Attorney General I. H. Van Winkle.

Niles, if efforts to eliminate him from the action fail, will be represented by the city's legal staff. Van Winkle probably will be represented by Willis Moore, his chief assistant. It was possible Ralph Moody, state coordinator in recent labor prosecutions, might be called. Frank S. Sever, chief deputy district attorney, probably will defend Bain and Pratt.
