Plows Removing Siskiyou Snow

ASHLAND, Dec. 20.- (AP)-A light snow fell in the Ashland district today. Plows were called out to remove a three-inch fall from the highway through the Siskiyou mountains.
The route was open but road crews reported the pavement slippery. Fog added to motoring dangers.
Although there was virtually no snow on the higher sections of the Greenupines route to Klamath Falls, the highway was slippery. The temperature was 33 degrees above zero.

Reunion Set For R.H.S. Class of 1938

Students of Roseburg high school in the class of 1938 will reunite for the first time tonight at the armory from 7 to 9 o'clock. The former students, many now home from universities and colleges, will enjoy skating and an informal meeting during the evening. All members of the class are urged to be at the armory promptly at 7 p. m.
