MRS. C. E. ROBERTS WILL BE SPEAKER AT AUXILIARY MEETING

ANNUAL TURKEY SUPPER IS HELD

ELKTON, Jan. 10.—The Wood-man lodge held the annual family turkey supper Thursday evening. After supper the evening was spent in visiting and playing cards. At a late hour a session was held for the purpose of electing officers for the next year.

SUTHERLIN, Jan. 9.—JustaMere Study club met at the home of William C. Woods Tuesday for a one o'clock luncheon. Following the luncheon. Mrs. H. C. Wilmot gave a review of the book,
"Women in the Soviet East," by Halle. Due to illness of some of the members, there was only four members present, Mrs. Wilmot, Mrs. Arthur Austin, Mrs. Allan
Tuthill and the hostess, Mrs.
Woods. The meeting next month will be at the home of Mrs. Hankenson, with Mrs. Austin as hostess. One of the most interesting meetings of the coming week will be that of the American Legion auxiliary and post at the armory next. Tuesday night, at which time Mrs. C. E. Roberts will talk on "The Aftermath of the Versailles Treaty." Members of the post and auxiliary are anticipating with keen interest Mrs. Roberts talk, as she is always a very fine speaker, and always a very fine speaker, and always has her topic to be discussed well in hand. Mrs. L. L. Miller, program chairman for the year, has math arrangements for the evening's program.

Following the program the Legion will serve refreshments. Mrs. V. J. Micelli, president of the suxiliary, and George Trapalls, commander of the post, will be in charge of the short business meetings.

Regime Urges Peace on Invaders' Teams.

Invaders' Teams.

SHANGHAI, Jan. 10.—(AP)— Japana's airforce subjected Chuinsking, Chima's provisional capital, to bombardment by nearly 100 warplanes today while the Japanese dominated Chinese manned Nanking regime called on the Chinese people to yield to Japan.

A Japanese communique said Chinese military establishments at Chungking, nearly 1,400 miles up the Yangtee river, were heavily damaged as warplanes airtacked in relays, meeting no Chinese resistance. Chinese planes were said to have fled at the approach of the Japanese air armada. It was Chungking's fifth air attack.

The Japanese already have indicated they hope to make such regimes the instruments of a peace which nominally would be between Japan and China even though the Chinese continued their resistance, now in the 19th month.

Would Accept Jap Terms

Wen's statement appealed to the people living in nine provinces which he listed as still under control of the Chinese government beaded by Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek to accept peace with Japan on the basis of the terms laid down Decomber 22 by Prince Konoye, then Japan's premier.

(Konoye proposed peace on the basis of continued Japanese occunation of strategic points in China"as an anti-communist measure"; China's adherence to the Japanese-Italian-German anti-communist territory; China's acceptance of a place in a Japan-Manchoukuo-China economic, political and cultural bloc.)
