By GAYLE TALBOT
NEW YORK, Jan. 17.—(AP)—Tickets for the Joe Louis-John Henry Lewis championship fight at the Garden a week from Tuesday night are, on the word of promoter Mike Jacobs, selling so fast that Mike is beginning to suspect he should have waited and staged the thing outdoors. He says it looks like it might over-run the Garden.

HOOP GAME BANNED BY SCARLET FEVER

The regularly scheduled game between Roseburg high school and Myrtle Creek, set for tonight in the B leagues gym, has been postponed indefinitely because of scarlet fever in that district has closed all the schools. It was learned late today. According to Coach Jim Watts, the game may be rescheduled later in the season. The Indians defeated Myrtle Creek, 39 to 19, in the opening game of the season on the local court and tonight's engagement was to have been a return meet. Watts' squad will devote all available time in preparation for the invasion of the Marshfield high school Pirates this coming Friday. The Coos bay Buccaneers have been tabbed by sports writers as the most potentially powerful quintet in the district. Coach Al Landes having a large number of lettermen and capable reserves on hand. The Pirates' most notable achievement to date was a 19-16 victory over Coquille.

BASKETBALL Games-Gossip

SEATTLE, Jan. 17.—(AP)—The Washington State college "Mid-get" forward, Bud Olson, stepped out in front in the northern division coast conference basketball scoring column today, with 43 points in five games, 10 points ahead of the next two in line. His average of 8.2 points a game, however, was overshadowed by the 13.3 point average of Dick Voelker, Washington center, but Washington has only played two conference games. Olson, former Everett high school star, is only five feet, 10 inches tall while most of his mates are well over six feet. Another Washington State player, John Kosich, has had 14 personal fouls called on him to lead the "bad boy" department. The records: g fg ft pf tp

McMINNVILLE, Jan. 17.—(AP)—Linfield college climbed into second place in the northwest conference last night by winning a double court game from College of Idaho, 62-37. The Idaho school agreed before the season to waive the home-and-home agreement with Oregon schools in the interest of economy and as result each of the four games played on this trip will count double. The Idahoans meet Linfield again tonight and Williamette Thursday and Friday.
