LOVE IS EVER THE SAME

By J. MARGARET CRUTE ASHCRAFT

Noting the progress for years long life's way, interesting changes one views every day; One thing remains steadfast, even the name: 'Tis love—it is ever the same.

Love through the years is forever the same, life is still playing the same old game; Centuries come and centuries go, The world travels on we rush to and fro; Love peacefully slides through a man made maze, Watching the lights that outshine the moon; Wonderful changes have come with the years, But love forever the same.

VETERANS ADMINISTRATION NEWS OF THE WEEK

On Friday, the 15th, some people sat around all day looking for bad luck. The only accident of which we heard happened to a ukelele player whom we had expected to hear that evening. He broke his instrument. However, that event had occurred on the 12th or the 14th. We were sorry to miss the opportunity to listen to his numbers, but, if he had come, there would not have been time for encores from some of the other musicians on the program, so, with that compensation, we are reconciled to await another appointment from Mr. Gomes.

The entertainment presented was the schoolhouse. The evening meeting was chosen, as the officers believed that more parents would be able to attend.

Provision has been made for the entertainment of the children during the evening by the Camp Fire girls. The program for the evening will include several musical numbers and talks from county leaders of the Boy Scouts, Camp Fire Girls and 4-H clubs.

The officers of the P.T.A. believe that the parents of Benson students will be more willing to act as leaders of the various fine organizations of the students, if they were acquainted with the needs and requirements, which will be presented at this meeting.

The project for the month will be to organize groups to study training for leadership. All parents of Benson school students are urged to attend this meeting.

Rose

The Rose P.T.A. with the assistance of the school board, sponsored the school reception and program for the dedication of the new Rose school building Monday evening.

Mrs. R. H. Mercer, president of the P.T.A., was assisted by Mrs. Roy Young as general chairman, assisted by Mrs. Charles B. Wade and Rev. Perry Smith; refreshments, Mrs. Carl Nickens, chairman, Mrs. G. M. Kroll, Mrs. Lee Williams, Mrs. Bert Courtney, Mrs. Roy Benton and Mrs. L. A. Miles; decorations, Mrs. L. A. Dillard, Mrs. Charles B. Wade, Mrs. J. P. Madschenbacher, Mrs. Will H. Gerretsen and Mrs. B. J. Corum; hostesses for the rooms, Mrs. J. Roland Parker, chairman, Mrs. C. R. Froom, Mrs. Carl Nickens, Mrs. L. B. Kroegel, Mrs. William Moran, Mrs. Kenneth Dunham, Mrs. C. A. Bartel, Mrs. E. S. Hall, Mrs. George Conkey, Miss Corbett, Miss Carothers, Miss Snedaker and Miss Fredrickson; ushers, E. S. Hall, chairman, Will H. Gerretsen, B. J. Corum, Ned Dixon and R. D. Coon, assisted by the boys from the sixth grade room.

Assisting at the tea table and pouring were Miss Adeline Stewart, Mrs. W. E. Sullivan, Mrs. Harold Whitlock, Mrs. Dorothy Chase Hunt and Mrs. E. S. Hall.

Following the interesting program, the visitors enjoyed a tour of inspection of the new building and later refreshments were served.

The date of the March meeting will be announced later.

The next meeting of the Benson P.T.A. will be held at 7:30 o'clock Monday evening, January 23rd, at a delightful combination of the esthetic and the humorous, and we are most grateful to Miss Helen Casey, the chairman, and to Mrs. Paul Golden, Mrs. Harris Ellsworth, Miss Alice Ueland, Mrs. L. M. Spencer, Miss Evelyn Breckenridge, Leroy Blatt, Cecil Black, Ray Doerner, and Delwin Jewett, for giving us such a happy hour of diversion.

The patients of Ward One, who usually have a party sponsored by the Gray Ladies on Monday afternoon, found Chinese checkers on the tables this week instead of cards, and all agreed that the game was very interesting. Mrs. L. W. Josse, Mrs. Velle Broadway, Mrs. A. H. Mountford and Mrs. George Wharton, were hostesses.

Tuesday evening we had a surprise. The auxiliary to the Veterans of Foreign Wars sponsored a Cooke party and the announcement brought out a response which filled our card room to capacity. The fun was somewhat noisy, but everyone went to bed chuckling and slept well that night. The prizes were much appreciated by the winners, and the refreshments could be listed for that often-heard advertising, "good to the last drop" and crumbs.

Wednesday was our monthly stag night. Nearly fifty convalescent patients came over to the Recreation building to smoke and talk with ex-service men from town. Interest in pool and cards becomes secondary to conversation when we get a chance to meet men who live on the outside. We used to be business men. We hope to be business men again. We like to swap business lingo.

The plot of our first picture show this week, "White Hammers," interested the more serious minded portion of our audience, and the excellent acting won the approval of all. The second was, "City Streets," and several men were heard to say that they went out. "That is the kind of picture my wife likes. She would have had a good cry over that." It was strong in human appeal, but Leo Carrillo always provides some laughs, and the story ends happily.

Within the last six days our patient census has been increased by fifty men from California, and they are asking, "Where is your winter?" New leaf buds on shrubbery have pushed off last year's leaves as a child's new teeth crowd out his baby ones. Blue birds arrived have stayed. Meadow larks are two days before Christmas, and singing now. Anyone who would like to boast of Oregon's virtues, or boast, might note these items.

RIVERSDALE GRANGE WILL HOLD SOCIAL NIGHT NEXT FRIDAY

Riversdale grange has announced its social night for next Friday, January 27th, to be held at 8:15 o'clock at the hall. All ladies of the grange are asked to bring pots.

The business meeting of the grange was held last night at the hall. A fine attendance enjoyed the meeting. Mrs. Bert Patterson was appointed to act as assistant lecturer for the year. The evening's door prize was won by Leslie Fogel with the chair set being won by W. D. Love.

At the close of the meeting the Senior high school debate team presented a debate on "Resolved that the United States should form an alliance with Great Britain." The debate was greatly enjoyed by the members.

Later in the evening refreshments were served by Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Cook, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Cloake, Jean Cloake and Lee Callins.
