VICTORY NINTH IN ROW FOR INDIANS

Local Basketeers, Clicking Smoothly, Never Headed After Early Lead.

By Maynard Bell
Roseburg high school's undefeated, fast-stepping basketball team today nestled more securely on the topmost rung of the ladder in the district No. 8 hoop race by chalking up its third straight conference win, and its ninth consecutive triumph over a powerful and rangy Marshfield high school quintet in a torrid contest played on the senior high court last night before the largest crowd of the season.

Lead Never Changes
From the moment of Virgil Sanders' basket from the field shortly after the game opened and thereafter, Coach Jim Watts' Indians took an early lead and never relinquished it. An almost impenetrable, close-checking defense held the elongated Pirate quintet to a puny two points the entire first quarter amassed from converted free throws, and to only two field goals in the second canto. So impregnable was the ring thrown around the Buccaneer basket that the visiting cagers were forced to hit long howitzers from mid-court and had very few of them.

Despite the fact the Indians were up against a team of lanky cagers, whose combined heights averaged better than six feet, they were complete masters in the control of rebound shots off of the backboard most of the evening. It was Parrott and Church who time after time crashed in to take the ball and speed down court before the surprised Pirates could become organized.

Against Marshfield's attempted zone defense during the first half, the Indians functioned smoothly and with precision. Church, Finlay, George and Virgil Sanders teamed together to zip the ball around and across the court with the finesse of old-timers, to the delight of the fans. Taking plenty of time to work a player into the clear, the Indians scored almost at will, at least made their attempts look ridiculously easy.

In the second half, it was a different story. Coach Watts' Indians came out with plenty of the old fire and spirit, but for some reason could not swing their offensive guns into action. A much tighter Marshfield defense, which had shifted from their earlier zone to a man-for-man defense, unbeknownst to the Indians was the reason. It was a case of attempting to score with a zone defense at tack against a man-for-man and

Title Contender On Roseburg Card

Logger Jack Hibbard, 157 pounds, of Klammath Falls, pictured above, will encounter Thursday night to knock the Pacific northwest middleweight crown from the brow of Buddy Peterson, 153 pounds, of Independence, Oregon. The two fighters will meet in the 16-round main event of the American Legion card at the Roseburg armory, marking the resumption of boxing in Roseburg after a lapse of more than three years.

It wouldn't work.
Ward Enters Fray
Coach Watts injected Ward into the fray at this point to straighten out the muddled Indians and as soon as they shifted to another offense, began to function more smoothly and were able to take the play away from the visitors.

The entire Roseburg team played outstanding ball, no one particular shining light overshadowing the ensemble work. They play both on offense and defense as a unit, without a weak link. Particularly impressive was their defensive work, especially so was the fine job turned in around the backboard, seldom did the towering visitors, one of whom, Randerup by name, who played most of the second half, and measured six feet six, get more than a held ball out of the many wild scrambles for the rebounding ball.

Cadarette, Chaney, Hansen and Randerup turned in fine games for Coach Al Landes, Marshfield mentor. Cadarette, one of the outstanding scorers in the Coos Bay district, was held to a low gift shot in four quarters of play by some very effective guarding by Church and George Sanders.

Pirates Miss 9 Free Chances
Statistics showed that Roseburg tallied nine goals from the field and seven free throws out of 25 chances awarded for their 25 points. Marshfield made six basket shots but fell down on the free throw line, converting only 5 out of 14 attempts.

The next home game for the Indians will be Friday night, January 27, when they meet the Myrtle Creek Bobcats for their fourth conference encounter. Following that game, the Indians will leave the local vicar for two straight weeks, taking on North Bend, in a return game, and Grants Pass in a non-conference battle.

HUSKIES DEFEAT O.S.C. BASKETEERS

Conference Leaders Garner 12th Win in Row; U. of O. Troupes Idaho.

By The Associated Press
Two high-coared basketball outfits, Washington and Oregon, pushed ahead on the title road in the Pacific coast conference northern division today at expense of Oregon State and Idaho.

The Huskies overcame an early lead to hand Oregon State its fourth conference beating at Seattle, 34 to 21, while Oregon was romping over Idaho, 38 to 30, at Moscow. The four teams play on the same floor again tonight.

O.S.C., using deliberate set plays that exploded into scoring drives, shocked the Huskies by making three baskets in its first five shots to take a 6-0 lead. Washington called time, solved the Oregon State system, and tied the count at 11-11 by halftime. O.S.C. regained the lead on a free throw as the second half started, but Washington dominated after that. The Huskies permitted the visitors only two field goals after the opening spurge.

Oregon Has Easy Game
In the game at Moscow, Oregon's Laddie Gabe Wintermute and Dick Badfield the Vandals with deadly basket-shooting. Oregon didn't extend itself and Idaho's stalling, defensive tactics merely kept the score down.

Idaho led briefly at one time in the first round, but Oregon was ahead 19-15 at the half and had command throughout. Idaho broke out with a flock of long range goal attempts near the end, but had no luck.

TRIO FOUND GUILTY OF EXTORTION PLOT
PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 20.—(AP)—Three men charged with attempting to extort $10,000 from Dr. W. E. Savage, Portland physician, were convicted by a federal court jury today.

The jury, which deliberated 17 hours, found Alexander Drummond, William John Jackson and Tony Bogdon guilty of conspiring to use the mails in an attempt to extort. In addition, Drummond and Jackson were convicted of use of the mails for extortion.

Federal bureau of investigation agents traced the men last fall to Woodrow Wilson. The youngsters ran up a big lead early in the game and led throughout and up to the closing seconds. Failure to function smoothly while attempting to stall in the final period contributed to their downfall.

There will be no preliminary to tonight's tussle, but interesting halftime entertainment has been arranged. The Papposes starting lineup will likely be composed of Ness and Schrimpf, forwards; Hughes, center; Slattery and Anderson, guards. Ready to replace the regulars at a second's notice will be Rutter, Campbell, Denny and Neal.

BILL WOULD OUST BRIDGES AS LEADER
SACRAMENTO, Calif., Jan. 20.—(AP)—Senator D. Jack Metzger, Red Bluff republican, initiated a move in the legislature today to depose Harry Bridges as a California labor leader.

Metzger introduced a bill to prohibit an alien from holding office in a union. He said it was aimed at the west coast director of the CIO.

CHIL STABBED BY YOUTHFUL STRANGER
PORTLAND, Jan. 21.—(AP)—Seven-year-old Donna Welch was stabbed and slightly injured last night by a youth who asked her if she knew where "Frances" lived and became angry when she said she did not. Police were trying today to solve the puzzle. The girl, daughter of Mrs. M. Welch, Portland, was skating when the stranger approached and queried her. She was stabbed with a pocket knife.

LEWIS CONCEDED CHANCE FOR UPSET
Challenger Will at Least Ward Off K. O. by Louis, Experts Think.

By GAYLE TALBOT
NEW YORK, Jan. 21.—(AP)—The shrewd old timers of the boxing clan are nearly unanimous in predicting that John Henry Lewis will give Champion Joe Louis a real run for his money next Wednesday night and still will be throwing leather at the end of 15 rounds.

Not a single manager or former manager interviewed by the writer has come out flat-footed and predicted a knockout for the champion. They admit the possibility, of course, but their best guess is that John Henry, the finest boxer among the big men, will go the route and make a more even thing of it than Tommy Farr did summer before last.

Even John Roxborough, co-manager of Joe, has not come out on a limb this time, and he is the one who insisted most strenuously that the Brown Bomber would ston Schmelze in the first round. He is confident that Joe will lose his title but staves the impression he would be glad to settle for a decision.

Recognized authorities are firmly of the belief that the clever challenger has better than an outside chance of scoring a sensational upset. Doubly interesting is the fact that they base their belief not on John Henry's past performances, but on the big man's training for this occasion. It is generally noted that he obviously is preparing to carry the battle to the champion's body and they think that is the way Louis ultimately is going to be licked.

GRAY LADIES BENEFIT CARD PARTY IS CHARMING AFFAIR
One of the most charming benefit card parties to be given in Roseburg in many years was sponsored yesterday afternoon from two to five o'clock by the Gray Ladies of the Paramount hotel Civic room.

Lovely bonnets of early spring flosses were used about the room. The tea table was beautifully appointed with a gold satin cloth, while the decorations included an oblong green mat, centered with a mirror, white figurines and miniature swan flower holders filled with violets, heather and greenery. Tall green tapers in white holders were lighted at the tea hour.

George E. Houck, chief dietitian at the veterans administration facility, assisted by Mrs. L. W. Josse, poured coffee, while Mrs. Helene H. Anderson, recreational aide at the facility, poured tea and was assisted in serving by Mrs. A. H. Mountford. The table was decorated by Mrs. Broadway and Mrs. H. C. Waddell.

Twenty tables of contract bridge and five hundred were in play during the afternoon with Mrs. Boyd Hales winning the high score prize in bridge. Other bridge prizes went to Mrs. Natalie Voyt and Mrs. Kenneth W. Kinney, while the five hundred card prize went to Mrs. Hargis, and the door prize was won by Mrs. H. W. Porter.

The Gray Ladies, in their attractive uniforms, acted as hostesses for the charming affair with Mrs. E. W. Josse, chairman of the Gray Ladies, acting as general chairman. Assisting Mrs. Josse included Mrs. George Wharton, Mrs. Broadway, Mrs. E. F. Tandy, Mrs. Edward Hines, Mrs. H. C. Waddell, Mrs. Roy Young, Mrs. George McBe, Mrs. O. M. Berrie, Mrs. Thomas Parkinson, Mrs. A. H. Mountford and Mrs. J. C. McAllister.

A number called during the tea hour to enjoy the delightful affair. The proceeds of the party will go to further the Gray Ladies' work at the V. A. F.
