

Indians Down Myrtle Point High, 34-24

VICTORY FOURTH IN ROW IN ZONE RACE

Superior Scoring on Free Throws Main Factor in Deciding Contest.

By Maynard Bell
These peppy Redskins are still "plenty bad medicine" to all Coos county competition. For the fourth straight week-end, Coach Jim Watts' Indian eagles have met and defeated the best hoop opposition that district No. 8 has to offer to retain undisputed league leadership with four consecutive victories without a set-back.

Last night on the senior high maple court it was Myrtle Point high school that bit the dust, overwhelmed 34 to 24 by the rampaging Indians in a rough and rugged contest. It was the Bobcats' first conference game and Hoopster's tenth victory in a row this season.

For a few moments in the opening quarter it appeared as if Roseburg might have its hands full subduing the Bobcats. Finlay started the fireworks by looping a long one and Church added a gift shot to make it three to nothing. Billings raised one to close the gap, but Church came through again with a nice lay-in for a 5-2 lead. A basket by Sutphin followed by his converted gift toss tied the score at 5-5. From that point on, the Indians quickly took command and kept the Bobcats' hands and feet busy with their shooting.

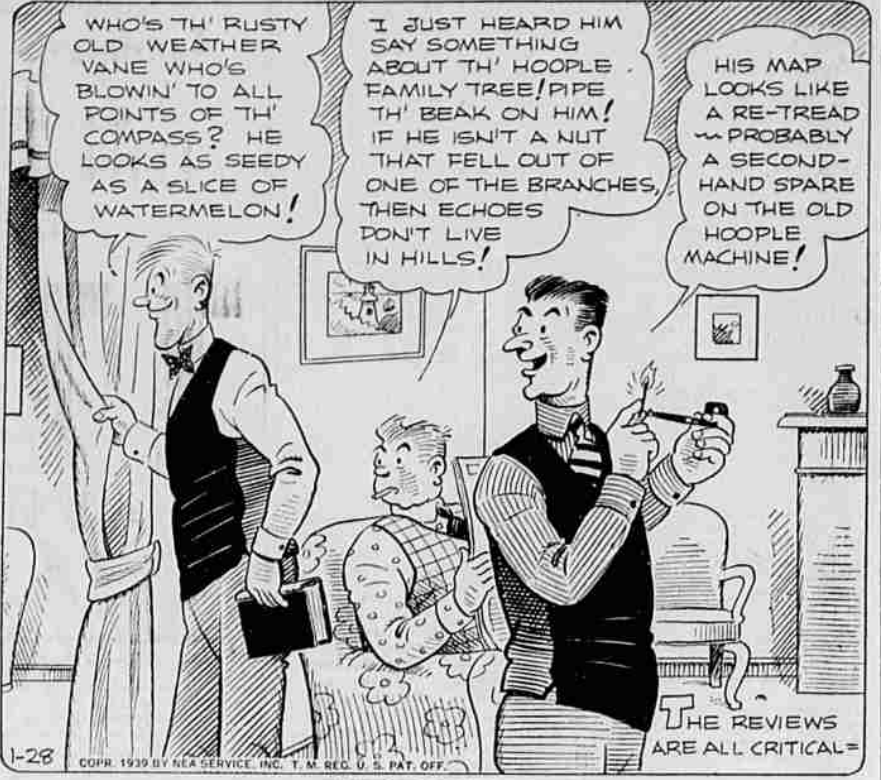

Coach Watts was far from satisfied with the showing the Indians made against Myrtle Point. The general all-round play and the ball-handling, so brilliantly executed against the Marshallfield Pirates a week ago, was far below their customary standard. The entire contest was raggedly played and time after time sloppy ball-handling nullified possible scoring opportunities. The whole team seemed to be suffering from a general let-down, which very likely accounts for their lack of fire and smoothness.

Bobcats Below Standard
The Bobcat lineup was materially weakened by the loss of Cook, stellar letterman guard, who failed to get into the game because of a twisted ankle suffered in Thursday night's practice. Coach Pat Rickard's lads also showed a natural let-down after their gratifying most victory over the heavily-favored North Bend Bulldogs last Tuesday night, for their play against the Indians showed plenty of fourth spots.

The Bobcat-Indian game marked the mid-point in the season for district No. 8 competition. From now on the local warriors must meet these teams on their own floors, and it is questionable whether the Indians will be able to survive these grueling road trips without the loss of one or more games. Only one conference game remains to be played on the local court and that against Conville, February 10.

Acid Test Ahead
Tomorrow evening Coach Watts will take his reserves to Myrtle Creek, where they meet the high school in a return game, postponed a short time ago. Most of the regulars who saw action against the Bobcats will be given a much-needed rest so that they will be ready by Tuesday night for the invasion of the Golden Tide quintet of University high school of Eugene. This game should prove the acid test of the strength of the Indians for the campus lads, leaders of the district No. 7 race in Willamette valley, will unquestionably be the strongest team faced by the locals so far this season.

Losers Lead at Halftime But Commit Too Many Fouls Toward End.

By the Associated Press
The buildup for next week's battles between the Universities of Oregon and Washington for what may be the northern division, Pacific coast conference basketball title, was all set up and ready to serve red-hot to fans today.

The victory was Oregon's seventh against one defeat, Washington has won four games and lost none.

Fouls Beat O. S. C.
The foul line was about worn out at Eugene in the Oregon-O. S. C. game, Oregon State lost the game by committing the astonishing total of 28 fouls, letting Oregon convert 18 of them for points and winning in the last few minutes of play. Oregon State led, 19 to 14 at halftime.

Forty-three fouls were made by both teams, and of the 19 men that saw action, only two ended up without a mark in his personal foul column.

Laddie Gate, Oregon's sensational forward, added 11 points to his season's scoring total which now stands at 90 points. Wintermute, Gate's teammate, was high man for the game with 13 points which brought his total up to 75 for the season and second place in the scoring race.

Standing of the division:

Washington	1	0	100	149	102
Oregon	7	1	.875	343	275
Wash. State	3	1	.750	235	264
Idaho	1	4	.200	149	176
Ore. State	0	6	.000	150	209

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 28.—(AP)—The University of Southern California's Trojans and the University of California's Bears from Berkeley are scheduled to settle the southern division, Pacific coast conference basketball race tonight. They were tied after Troy's 28-24 victory last night, and 6,500 fans who saw the clash still suffered occasional heart palpitations as they recalled the last wild 90 seconds, which spoiled the Bears' unbeaten state. The Trojans previously lost to Stanford.

CARLOS NEAL PAYS $15 ASSAULT FINE

Personalities by Attorneys Mark Trial of Case and Fight Almost Occurs.

An asserted "Tempest in a Teapot," starting with a so-called lovers' quarrel and ending in a near knock-down, drag-out between attorneys, created plenty of excitement in the justice court in Roseburg yesterday. The case, involving a charge of assault and battery, occupied the entire day, the jury returning a verdict of guilty against the defendant, Carlos Neal, who paid a fine of $15 and costs.

The complaint was made by Miss Emma Britts, who claimed that she was assaulted by Neal.

Bribery Charge Hurled
It was brought out in the trial of the case that the girl had gone to the office of Attorney Ray H. Compton, where she received $5. District Attorney J. V. Long and his father and assistant, John T. Long, charged that the money was paid as a bribe to the principal witness to leave town.

Gout Averts Battle
The quibbling argument led to bitter words, and after the retirement of the jury to deliberate on a verdict the argument took a more personal tone in which the assistant district attorney was reported to have used fighting words in speaking to Compton. Judge R. W. Masters was hard pressed, it is reported, to bring the threatened battle to a halt.

The jury returned a verdict of technical assault, and sentence was imposed upon Neal this morning. The jury was composed of C. W. Parker, E. L. Giles, O. D. Newhard, C. H. Arundel, D. Y. Allison and Jos. Blosser.

FIRST WAGE-HOUR LAW SUIT IS FILED

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27.—(AP)—Administrator Elmer F. Andrews announced today he had brought suit—the first under the wage-hour law—against the Central Weaving and Spinning Corporation of Fayetteville, N. C., seeking to enjoin it from violating that statute.

The suit was filed in the United States district court of eastern North Carolina at Fayetteville.

A wage-hour administration announcement said an examination of the concern's books since October 24, 1938, when the act went into effect, showed many instances of payments under piece work rates yielding less than $10 for a 44-hour week. The minimum wage under the law is 25 cents an hour or $11 for a 44-hour week, for concerns engaged in interstate business.
