GARDEN VALLEY WOMEN'S CLUB TO MEET THURSDAY

The Garden Valley Women's club will meet at two o'clock Thursday afternoon at the club house with Mrs. Peter Sinclair. All members are urged to be present. The members of the club have been invited to the special guests of honor at an interesting meeting of the Roseburg Woman's club to be held in Roseburg at a one-thirty o'clock dinner-luncheon at the clubhouse, Tuesday, February 21st. Louise Palmer Weber, famous radio speaker, will be the guest speaker at this meeting. All members of the Garden Valley club are most cordially invited to enjoy the occasion.

VALENTINE DANCE TO BE HELD FRIDAY NIGHT AT COUNTRY CLUB

Members of the Roseburg Country club and friends are most cordially invited to enjoy a charming Valentine dancing party to be held at nine o'clock Friday evening, February 17th, at the clubhouse. Arrangements for the interesting affair are in charge of Mrs. Kenneth Quine, chairman, Mrs. E. S. McClain, Mrs. E. Pearson, Mrs. R. J. Corum, Mrs. L. K. Fies and Mrs. M. C. Bowler.

PUBLIC INVITED TO BENEFIT CARD PARTY THURSDAY EVENING

A most cordial invitation has been extended to the public by Patrick W. Kelley auxiliary to Veterans of Foreign Wars to attend a delightful benefit card party at eight o'clock Thursday evening, February 16th, at the K. of P. hall. High score prizes will be awarded and a door prize will be awarded, followed by refreshments. The committee in charge of the affair includes Mrs. Ray Schaeffer, Mrs. H. T. Hansen and Mrs. S. W. Van Voort.

OKEDA CAMP FIRE GROUP HAS MEETING

The Okeda Camp Fire group met at the home of the guardian, Mrs. E. Johnson, Wednesday, at which time plans were made for a Valentine party. Following the business meeting a social hour was enjoyed and candy was served.

Today's Pattern

8389
LARGE SIZE HOUSE FROCK PRACTICAL AND PRETTY

This is a slim, good-looking dress, with simple, well-fitting lines, and a braided-trimmed, neck-closing to give it interest. It is practical to work in. The armholes are ample, the skirt widens comfortably at the hem, and the waistline is easy and unhampering.

It's a delightfully easy design for even the inexperienced to make, with a minimum of stitching and seaming. The fit is taken care of by a few simple darts. Your pattern includes a step-by-step new chart explaining everything.

Make this dress in sports silk or flat crepe for hasty shopping trips, as well as several in percale, calico or gingham for house wear. You'll find it the most comfortable and becoming bread-and-butter dress you ever owned.

Pattern 8389 is designed for sizes 36, 38, 40, 42, 44, 46, 48, 50 and 52. Size 38 requires 4 5/8 yards of 35-inch material; 2 7/8 yards of 36-inch. The new SPRING AND SUMMER PATTERN BOOK, 32 pages of attractive designs for every size and every occasion, is now ready. Photographs show dresses made from these patterns being worn; a feature you will enjoy. Let our charming designs in this new book help you in your sewing. One pattern and the new spring and summer pattern book—25 cents. Pattern or book alone—15 cents.

MRS. E. L. HENNINGER ENTERTAINS AT BENEFIT TEA IN MEDFORD

Mrs. E. L. Henninger, formerly the News-Review correspondent at Oakland, and now a resident of Medford, was hostess Thursday afternoon at her home 1000 West Main street at a tea and program arranged by the ladies of the W.C.T.U. in honor of the centenary of Frances E. Willard.

Mrs. James Hamilton spoke on the topic "Why is Her Life Outstanding?" stressing Miss Willard's courageous leadership and her personal magnetism. Mrs. Daisy Douglas told of the dedication of New Willard Hall at Northwestern university. Evanston, Ill. Mrs. Julia Gregory told of the "Polyglot Petition," written by Frances Willard, the first world-wide proclamation against the liquor traffic.

Mrs. Norma Early Wolfe, evangelist of the Free Methodist church, gave the devotional message. Mrs. R. H. Vincent closed with a song, "Dearest and Best." Mrs. Wolfe accompanied her husband, Mr. Robert Wolfe, in a duet, "An Old Violin."

Miss Irene Downing, a missionary to Ecuador, who is a guest of Mrs. C. S. Finley in Central Point, while on furlough, gave an interesting talk on her work among the Spanish-speaking people, and on conditions there.

Mrs. Minnie Bryant presided over the meeting, and Mrs. H. G. Wilson and Mrs. E. G. Roseborough were hostesses at the beautifully appointed tea-table, bright with red carnations and red candles. The valentine motif was featured in the decorations and in the heart-shaped desserts and cakes. There were over 60 guests present for the occasion.

The March meeting of the W.C.T.U. will be an all-day local institute in the Christian church.

DORCAS SOCIETY HAS MEETING WEDNESDAY

ELKTON, Feb. 14.—The Dorcas society met in regular session Wednesday afternoon at the church. One item of interest was the society voted to buy three dozen plates and cups. A quilt was put in the frames to be worked on next meeting. The rest of the afternoon was spent in fancy work.

Mrs. Vesta Sawyers and Miss LeAnna Sawyers served refreshments at the tea hour.

WILLING WORKERS CLUB MAKING QUILT AT MEETINGS

ELKTON, Feb. 14.—The Willing Workers club of the Church of Christ met at the church Saturday afternoon to work on a quilt. The material of the quilt was given by different members. It is to be given away at a program later in the spring. Six members were present at the meeting.

MEN'S GLEE CLUB TO PRACTICE THURSDAY

The Roseburg Men's Glee club will meet at 7:30 o'clock Thursday evening at the Methodist Episcopal church for the weekly practice under the direction of R. M. Church. All members are requested to be present as the club will begin practice for out-of-town concerts, which will start the first of the month.

CHAPTER BI OF P.E.O. TO MEET ON FRIDAY

Chapter Bi of P.E.O. Sisterhood will meet at one o'clock Friday, February 17th, at the home of Mrs. K. D. Lytle at 529 East Douglas street.

ART AND EMBROIDERY CLUB TO MEET

The Roseburg Art and Embroidery club will meet Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. Neal on Flesher street instead of at the Healy Cox home as previously planned. Following the business meeting, a potluck luncheon will be enjoyed. All members are urged to be present.

THE "IF" OF THE DAY
By Orpha Collins
If I could have my wishes,
And if you would be mine,
I'd wish for two or three pennies
To buy you a valentine.

L. T. L. MEMBERS ENJOY PARTY AT SOUTHWICK HOME

Mrs. Fred L. Southwick, adult secretary for the Loyal Temperance Legion entertained the group at a delightful party at her home last evening following school. There were thirty-four boys and girls, including five new members, present for the enjoyable evening. Refreshments were served, following a social hour of games, in charge of the older members of the group.

Franklyn Weaver and Margaret Harvey signed the L. T. L. pledge at this party. The pledge is "I promise, God helping me, not to buy, drink, sell or give alcoholic liquors while I live. From all tobacco I'll abstain and never take during the social hour the members enjoyed exchanging Valentines.

MERRY-GO-ROUND CLUB TO MEET ON THURSDAY

The Merry-Go-Round club will meet at a one-thirty o'clock dinner-luncheon Thursday at the home of Mrs. R. D. Kleist at Coos Junction. All members are cordially invited to be present.
