P. T. A. ACTIVITIES IN DOUGLAS COUNTY

Benson
Benson P. T. A. has announced an unusually fine program to celebrate Founder's Day at 7:30 o'clock next Monday evening, February 20th, at the schoolhouse, to which members, friends and patrons are cordially invited to enjoy

Ralph and Earl Karlinger and P. R. Shanklin will play accordion, guitar and violin trio numbers, followed by delightful readings, songs and dance numbers to be presented by the children of the school. Mrs. R. H. Mercer, who was a delegate from the Roseburg P. T. A., at the recently held home economics conference in Corvallis, will be present and give a talk on the conference.

Students of Benson school are making every effort to get all of the mothers and dads out to next Monday evening's meeting, as the room having the greatest percentage of parents at the program will win the dollar prize. Refreshments will be served at the close of the program.

Special Meeting Held
A special meeting of the Benson P. T. A. was called by the president, Mrs. Carl E. Roelund, Tuesday, at which time Mrs. Hazel Lytle, Douglas county school nurse, gave a talk on immunization and child health, followed by a fine talk by E. A. Britton, Douglas county 4-H club leader, on the many projects available in his work to boys and girls.

Preceding the meeting tea was served to the members and to guests, who included the mothers of next year's first grade pupils.

Fallerton
Members and friends of Fallerton school gathered Wednesday evening to observe the forty-second birthday anniversary of the national congress of parents and teachers, and also to celebrate their twenty-sixth anniversary. Charter members present were Judge and Mrs. J. W. Marsters, Mrs. Foster Butner and Mr. and Mrs. L. Kohlgren, Sr. Past presidents, who were guests of honor, were introduced, each responding with a short talk, after which they were presented with a corsage of colorful flowers. Those honored were Mrs. Foster Butner, Mrs. L. Kohlgren, Sr., Mrs. L. A. White, Mrs. A. E. Taylor, Mrs. E. A. Britton and Mrs. H. B. Carter.

Mrs. Clyde Carstens presided over a short business session with Mrs. Harrie Booth as secretary. Reports were given by committee chairmen. A motion carried for a penny drill for the McLaughlin fund. The school opera was announced for March, with the following committee in charge of the candy sale: Mrs. Liston Darby, chairman, Mrs. H. H. Turner, Mrs.

It's Spoon For President

A Treasure Island souvenir silver spoon direct from the California World's Fair site, was mailed to President Roosevelt by Tanya Widrin, who is pictured affixing the mailing tag. The spoon was sent to the White House by the designer, and there will be shown to the President's guests. On the spoon is the Tower of the Sun with the Bay Bridge in the background.

And There Were No Parts Left

Looks tough enough even if you weren't blindfolded. Just 49 seconds after this picture was taken, Cadet John Fonda of Valley Forge (Pa.) Military Academy had completely assembled the automatic revolver, setting new record.

Donald Gibbs, Mrs. L. Ashworth. Of special interest was a talk given by Mrs. R. H. Mercer, who was a delegate of the Douglas county council, to the recent home economics conference in Corvallis. The subject of her talk was "some of our blest fears." Mrs. Harold Bellows announced the program for March which would be particularly for pre-school mothers who are to be guests at the meeting. The attendance prize was won by Miss Shroove's room.

Judge R. W. Marsters, guest speaker, gave an interesting history of Fallerton P. T. A., after which a lovely program was presented by Mrs. Hugh Whipple, consisting of a piano selection by Mrs. Paul Geddes and three numbers by the Kwanis quartette, accompanied by Mrs. Geddes. The quartette, Walter Fisher, Paul Geddes, R. L. Whipple and Franklin Voss, sang "Long, Long Ago," "Quitting Party" and as an encore, "What's the matter with P. T. A."

A beautiful candle lighting ceremony followed with Miss Ruth Swinney lighting the candles on the large anniversary cake centering a beautifully appointed table. Two large red tapers were lighted for the national and state organizations. A white candle was lighted in memory of Mrs. Frank Staufanson. The cake was cut by Mrs. H. B. Carter with Mrs. L. Kohlgren Sr. and Mrs. Foster Butner pouring. A very delightful social hour followed.
