In Budapent, Hungarian political police investigated tips that the Hungarist nazi movement, dissolved yesterday as a menace to national security, was reorganizing to continue underground as an illegal political organization. The leader of the Hungarist "blade corps," the party's allegedly trorist section, still was sought.

BANKER DICK SEES BUSINESS UPSWING

PORTLAND, Feb. 25.—(AP)—This year should match the business volume of 1937, one of the largest years in history for many industries, Paul S. Dick, president of the U. S. National bank said today upon his return from an eastern trip.

day upon his return from an eastern trip.

Substantial capital investments
by railroads, public utilities and certain steel operations was in prospect, despite a seasonal lull at present, Dick said.

"Prices on the whole are tending slightly downward and it seems apparent that the market for agricultural products will register but little improvement during the season," he observed. Residential construction should continue forward unless building costs are increased substantially.

The vote was 51 to 45 against passing the bill despite the disapproval of Governor Roy E. Ayers, who had said he did not believe Montana "should have the stigma of commercializing", the domestic troubles of her sister states."

A two-thirds majority was necessary to override the veto. The measure passed the house originally by a vote of 58 to 34 and the senate gave approval 35 to 18.

commented favorably on Hopkins' speech.

Carlisle said the secretary's comment on utilities "clearly indicates a desire on the part of the administration to remove doubt as to the competitive fields of public ownership and operation and the fields occupied by the private companies."

"Wilkie expressed the view that if Hopkins "speaks with the authority of those governmental agencies that have to do with the power industry... his offer of cooperation... will be reassuring... The log jam in utility investment, which is broken would mean so much in promoting employment must be broken by action on the part of government."
