Daily Devotions DR. CHARLES A. EDWARDS

DR. CHARLES A. EDWARDS

There is no fact of science made more sure than the facts and reabtles upon which the Christian fixes his faith. The fact of Jesus Christ, not only as He was here in the days of His flesh, but as He has been in human history and experience ever since. Jesus' Christ has been too vital a force in the world all through the years for any doubt to be cast upon the reality of the things we believe about Him as His intelligent and sincere followers. He has schieved things in human history that no one could have achieved who was not fully worthy of the noblest Christian faith. Our confidence and hope are in Thee, our God, and in worthy of the noblest Christian faith. Our confidence and hope are in Thee, our God, and In Thy Son who came to reveal Thee unto us, and to assure us of Thy goodness and Thy grace and love. May our faith abide in Thee amidst all life's perpexities and fears and grow more and more as the days go by, for Jesus sake. Amen.
