SUMMER CAMP OF SCOUTS PLANNED

Forest Facilities on Wolf Creek and Little River Will Be Utilized.

Boy Scouts of Roseburg will open their summer camp for two weeks on Little River and Wolf creek, using the forest facilities at the base camp, according to A. M. Knudtson, camping chairman for this district, who met with his committee last night at the Roseburg chamber of commerce office.

Costs of the camp per scout are being worked out by E. S. McClain and B. A. Meeks and will be announced as soon as can be determined. Scoutmasters are urged to make a definite check-up in their troops to ascertain how many scouts will register for the camp.

V. V. Harpham and F. L. Crittenden were named by Mr. Knudtson as the committee on camp operation, equipment and supplies. A prompt survey of equipment on hand and expected needs will be made by this committee.

Leon McClintock and George Churchill will have charge of the camp program, including instruction, water front activities, hikes and safety. Tentative hikes requiring one to four days were outlined to the entire committee last night with the recommendation that short hikes be conducted during the first week with a longer hike as a major feature at the climax of the period.

BASKETBALL SERIES BROADCASTS O. K. 'D

Inhibition on Sponsoring, However, Protested by KRNR Manager.

Welcome news to basketball fans of Roseburg and vicinity was received here today when the Coos County Schoolmasters association reported, following a meeting last night, that broadcasts from stations KRNR at Roseburg and KOOS at Marshfield of the District 8 basketball tournament at Coquille would be permitted.

The schoolmasters, however, imposed the restriction that such broadcasts could not be sponsored and must be furnished by the respective stations free of commercial sponsorship.

This restriction is being accepted under protest by KRNR, Marshall Pengra, manager of the Roseburg station, said today.

The matter of broadcasting the tournament games has been a subject of heated controversy between the stations and the schoolmasters. The teachers, however, yielded at their meeting last night, after the Roseburg school board had sent a message urging that broadcasting be permitted.

Ruling Held Unfair

"We feel that the ruling of the Coos county schoolmasters is decidedly unfair, and it is only because of the importance of these broadcasts to our local fans that we protestingly submit to the ruling," Mr. Pengra declared today.

"The Sunset Thrift store at Roseburg has given outstanding service to basketball fans this season by sponsoring broadcasts of games. These broadcasts have not hurt attendance. On the contrary, attendance at local games this season has established an all-time high. At the same time there is greater interest than ever before in the district play-off. This keen interest and record attendance is in a large measure due to the Sunset Thrift store's enterprise in sponsoring radio broadcasts of games. We feel that the sponsor is being unfairly treated in being barred from participating in the climax of the season's play.

Stations Share in Expense

"If the sponsor was paying the full cost of the broadcasts plus a profit to the stations, there might be some measure of justification for the ruling. The sponsor, however, has not paid all of the costs in games so far broadcast, as the stations have carried a part of the expense.

"If it were not for the fact that the reports of these games mean so much to local fans, KRNR would reject the condition upon which these broadcasts are to be permitted," Pengra said. "The actual amount of money involved is not a serious problem, but we do feel that the ruling is unfair to the organization which has by its sponsorship created a growing interest in district basketball. The Sunset Thrift store management, however, recognizing the great interest of the fans, has graciously agreed to sacrifice the benefits which would result from sponsorship of broadcasts from the tournament, and arrangements are being completed today to bring play-by-play reports of games in which the Roseburg team participates, as sustaining programs."

INTEREST IN FIGHT CARD HERE KEEN

Big Attendance Indicated for Friday by Advance Ticket Sales.

Advance ticket sales indicate a large attendance at the American Legion boxing card to be held Friday night at the Roseburg armory under sponsorship of Umpqua Post of the American Legion, according to Rudy Fitzman and Pat Padelord, matchmakers. Much interest, it is reported, has been manifested over the northwest middleweight title bout between Champion Buddy Peterson, of Independence, Oregon, and Leo Turner, 19-year-old colored flash from Oakland, California. Turner, who formerly resided in Seattle, is said to be one of the fastest boxers in middleweight circles, but lacks the punching power of the husky title holder, who has risen to the top of the class in the Pacific Northwest by means of an impressive string of knockouts.

Much interest also is shown in the semi-final bout, to be fought between Joe Corbett, Roseburg boxer and wrestler, and Jack Hibbard, Klamath Falls logger and middleweight veteran. Corbett holds one decision over Hibbard and they have a draw as the result of two previous encounters.

The supporting card will offer three four-round bouts between representatives of the CCC camps at Gunter and Steamboat. These are the second bouts in an elimination series between fighters from the CCC camps of Douglas county and it is expected that as the series progresses there will be an increasing interest in the preliminary fighters who will become better known to the boxing fans.
