ROSEBURG STORE TO BE REMODELED

Piggly Wiggly Owners to Provide for Increasing Volume of Sales.

The local Piggly Wiggly store, under the ownership and management of R. L. Carpenter and Paul Abels is engaging in a large program of expansion and remodeling.

The outside lines of the building are to be modernized, and the entire exterior will be painted in keeping with the present day streamline style.

The remodeling, the firm states, is being done in order to provide additional space and facilities for the fresh fruit and vegetable department and to provide for the growing volume of sales.

"When our improvements are completed we will have the most modern front and the finest fresh fruit and vegetable department in this section of Oregon," Mr. Carpenter declared.

"The most market in connection with our store carries a complete line of branded and government inspected beef. The public is invited to inspect the market at any time."
