Today's Pattern

YOU'LL CHUCKLE AT CHORES IN THIS CHIC HOUSE FROCK

By CAROL DAY

You know how it is. You can work faster and more happily when you know you look slim and attractive in a really becoming home frock. And you can work a lot easier when wearing Pattern 8417, because it has deep armholes, short sleeves and a flaring skirt, to ensure plenty of freedom for energetic action. The princess cut provides complete ease at the waistline; the sash belt, tied in the back, enables you to adjust it exactly as you please, for slowness and comfort.

Make this pretty dress in calico, percale or gingham, in the most becoming prints you can find. It will look so fresh and spring-like, with all that rick-rack. This is a diagram design that even the inexperienced can easily make.

Pattern No. 8417 is designed for sizes 14, 16, 18, 20, 42 and 44. Size 16 requires 4 7/8 yards of 35-inch material, with 6 yards of tie-rack braid.

REV. H. G. RANNELES AND ANNE MAPES MARRY IN ROSEBURG, EASTER SUNDAY

At a beautiful ceremony, impressive in its simplicity, Miss Anne Mapes, of Sacramento, Calif., and Rev. Hubert G. Rannelles, of Yuba City, Calif., were married at three o'clock Easter Sunday afternoon, April 9, at the parsonage of the Full Gospel church on West First street in Roseburg.

Rev. A. Harold Persing, pastor of the church, performed the ceremony, which took place in a beautiful setting of Easter lilies, peach blossoms and bleeding hearts, arranged in attractive bouquets about the room.

The bride wore an attractive navy blue silk suit trimmed in white brocade lace. She wore a corsage of pale pink roses. The wedding music was played by Mrs. A. M. Shaffer.

Guests attending included Donald Shortridge and Kathryn Montgomery, co-pastors at Glendale, Grace Montgomery, of Glendale; Mr. and Mrs. Harold V. Manning and son, Leslie, and Joanne Goertz, all of Sacramento, Calif.; Rev. and Mrs. A. M. Shaffer and son, Robert, and Esther Carlick, student at the Bible academy, Canyonville, and Rev. and Mrs. A. Harold Persing.

Mrs. Rannelles has been teaching in Heald's Business college at Sacramento and Rev. Mr. Rannelles, who received his education at Yuba City, is an evangelist.

Following the wedding ceremony and an informal reception, Rev. and Mrs. Rannelles left on a wedding trip.
