

EUGENE SHIES AT BONNEVILLE OFFER

EUGENE, Ore., April 13.—(AP)—Representatives of Bonneville will confer with officials of the Eugene water board Friday relative to the rate schedule to be offered this city for purchase of peak power from the dam, J. M. McArthur, superintendent of Eugene Utilities, said today.

While Bonneville is building transmission lines to Eugene and preparing to erect a substation here, no actual contract between the Columbia project and Eugene has been signed, due to the fact a rate schedule satisfactory to Eugene has not yet been submitted.

Eugene wishes only power to handle the peak load here, the local hydroelectric plants being sufficient to produce all the electrical energy needed for routine consumption at the present time, Mr. McArthur points out.

The city owns and operates its own municipal plant on the McKenzie river.

BRITISH-FRENCH PLEDGE GIVEN TO GREECE, RUMANIA

more chance for friendship with Britain by declaring he looked to the Italian government for "practical evidence" it shared his desire for good relations.

The prime minister refused to denounce the Anglo-Italian accord of 1938 because of Italy's conquest of Albania.

But he made it plain Britain felt Premier Mussolini had flouted that pact and disturbed the status quo in the Mediterranean.

The two nations in the 1938 pact agreed the status quo in the Mediterranean area should be maintained.

The Anglo-French pledge of aid for Greece and Rumania following Italy's invasion of Albania widened the non-aggression front which Britain and France began building with a similar pledge to Poland after Germany took back Memel.

Invasion "Shocks World"

The prime minister said the Italian invasion had "profoundly shocked" the world.

"The British government will lend to Greece or Rumania if their independence is threatened all the support in their power."

Of the Anglo-Italian accord he said it had "been justified and should not at this moment be ended."

The pledge to Rumania had not been expected today. But the prime minister declared the government attached the greatest importance to avoiding disturbance "by force or fear of force" of the status quo either in the Mediterranean or the Balkan peninsula.

Wide Protection Pledged

It had been expected such a pledge would be made to Turkey, but of that country Chamberlain said:

"We are communicating this declaration (the assurance to the governments concerned and to others, especially to Turkey, whose close relations with the Greek government are well known."

By his pledges the prime minister extended Britain's commitments of protection clear to the borders of the soviet union from the Baltic to the Black sea.

PREPARATION FOR WAR MADE BY BRITAIN, FRANCE

PARIS, April 13.—(AP)—France's armed preparedness is being advanced by military decrees, details of which remained secret. Their general effect, however, was known in that they called more reservists to join the already swollen land army estimated at more than 1,200,000 men. Men and munitions were massed mostly in fortifications and rearward camps.

The combined French and British Mediterranean fleets—normally at least 100 units—were standing "somewhere in the Mediterranean" ready for orders.

In event of conflict this formidable naval force, which normally includes about 74 destroyers and 50 submarines, would move as one fleet.

Germany Supplies Italy

Nearly all French observers, speculating on reports of activities along the Rome-Berlin axis, agreed it was Germany and Italy would attempt to flank France's Maginot line facing the Rhine by an attack through the Alps and from Spain.

For weeks French and Swiss newspapers have carried reports of German men, arms and war materials passing through the Brenner pass and other routes into Italy.

Observers on the Spanish border reported at least one artillery battery, with its muzzles pointed toward France, had been placed in plain sight on the Spanish side of Le Pertuis pass.

The Le Pertuis reports followed numerous other reports in recent months that Spaniards were fortifying their boundary with France. Reports of increased fortification of land boundaries in Spanish Morocco also were under study.

and prevent her from signing the pact.

But a pro-government newspaper declared "rewarding" "reconciliation" Poland has much more to say than Germany, because German troops are concentrated all along the Polish frontier, from Slovakia to Memel."

DANZIG CLAIMS ANNOYANCE BY ANTI-GERMAN POLES

DANZIG, April 13.—(AP)—The Danzig free state government today handed a note to the Polish envoy here protesting against "Polish provocations."

The cooling of diplomatic relations between the free state, at the head of the Polish corridor, and Poland has been noticeable in the last few days.

The official press announcement of the note said that in the last few days anti-Polish leaflets had been thrown from Polish trains passing through the Danzig territory.

The leaflets were said to have contained a Polish song demanding incorporation of the free state into Poland.

The note referred to the "dangerous results of these Polish provocations."

Two blocks on Central avenue were presented by the county to the school district number 130, the deed being received April 4. This ground is to be used for a playground for the school children and plans are being made for a baseball diamond for immediate use. Work will begin on the grading and leveling as soon as the ground is dry enough. The Sutherlin Progressive club is taking an active interest in the work.

GERMANY READY TO SET WAR BLAME

Official circles showed keen apprehension over the possibility peoples of the western democracies already had been "incited" to the point where they were more radical in their "demands" for war than their governments.

This was referred to as "overheating of the people's minds."

J. E. Sinden, son-in-law of the late R. T. Davis, said today four of the gold coins were uncovered during spring plowing while four others had been found at intervals during the past 25 years.

Easter Sunday was enjoyed by many "Isaac Walton" fishing in various streams. George Solomon, bus driver of the Millwood school bus landed a thirty-one pound chinook at the Leatherwood rapids. Mr. Solomon says he would much rather fish every day than drive a bus. Arthur Austin, of the Veterans' facility, was also a winner of a thirty-one pound salmon.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Graham left Tuesday for Grass Lodge, Mont., where Mr. Graham will be employed with a highway crew. They spend each winter here visiting at the home of Mr. Graham's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Graham.

with President Roosevelt yesterday.

Economy Leader Needed

Senator Byrd (D-Va.) said today by introducing $50,000,000 from President Roosevelt's relief request congress proved "if we had executive leadership for economy, congress would back it up."

"But without such leadership," said Byrd, long a critic of administration spending policies, "it is apparent no heavy reductions in federal expenditures can be made."

"The situation today is that the relief act and reductions in other appropriation requests show congress is not willing to permit spending above the level already reached, but congress will not cut that spending much, if at all."

"The $100,000,000 emergency relief appropriation which congress voted this week raised total relief appropriations for the current fiscal year to $2,691,000,000.

Byrd pointed out to reporters this sum is the largest granted for relief in one year. The largest previous total, he said, was $2,527,000,000 in 1937. Last fiscal year the amount was $1,996,000,000.

"In the last year," Byrd said, "we've increased federal spending for all purposes by $2,000,000,000. If we could get back to the $7,000,000,000 level of a year ago, we would still be far from a balanced budget, but we would be better off financially than we are now."

HIGHWAY CITIES IN FAVORED SPOT

"The cities along highway No. 99 and other main routes between San Francisco and the northwest stand in a particularly fortunate position this year," said W. G. Oves, Spokane representative of the Pacific Northwest Tourist association, who was here today en route to the International Travel show at San Francisco April 14 to 22.

"With the Grand Coulee dam due to reach its most spectacular construction stage this summer; with U. S. highway No. 10, the main travel artery across North Dakota, Montana and Idaho, in perfect hard-surfaced condition the entire distance across the northern route; and with the fair in San Francisco, the Pacific coast stands in a position this season to mark an all-time high in its figures on tourist travel," Mr. Oves said.

KIDNAPER OF WEYERHAEUSER BOY SEEKING LIBERATION

SAN FRANCISCO, April 13.—(AP)—Twenty-six names, including that of Harmon M. Waley, serving a 45-year term for the 1925 kidnaping of George Weyerhaeuser, 9, of Tacoma, Wash., appeared to day on a list of Alcatraz prison inmates asking release on legal technicalities.

Twenty-one of the prisoners' petitions were based on the appeal they were deprived of counsel at their trials.

Waley, notwithstanding previous failure on a somewhat similar petition, filed a plea in district court yesterday for a writ of habeas corpus. He declared he had not been represented properly by lawyers at this trial, and said that despite his original assertion to the contrary, he did not take the Weyerhaeuser boy across state lines, and thus did not violate federal laws under which he was convicted.
