RIDDLE H. S. PRESENTS INTERESTING PLAY

RIDDLE, April 13.—The Riddle high school presented an interesting program last Friday evening at the school gym, the proceeds to be used in student activities. A group of four short plays was given, one of which, "The Mysterious Guest," was written by Principal Chester Cook. Between acts the school orchestra, under the direction of Ede King of Canyonville, entertained the crowd and Kenneth Williams sang several solos. The plays were as follows: "While the Toast Burns," by Betty Cornutt, Henry Rigby, Gwen Howard, Jean Hiles and Jack Moore; "Egbert to the Rescue," by Edward Hart, Pat Ball, Elwood Townsend, Jim Nichols and Edna Hiesby; "It Ain't My Fault," by Jane Hausotter, Virginia Griggs, Betty Cornutt, Eugene Mellor, Henry Rigby, Elwood Townsend; "The Mysterious Guest," by Mildred Hamlin, Elwood Townsend, Myrtle Griggs, Evelyn Hammersley, Pat Ball, Annette Hart, Gwen Howard, Jean Hiles, Eugene Mellor, Jack Cornutt, Willard Boyd, Bill Randall.

ANNUAL EASTER DINNER PARTY ENJOYED SUNDAY

RIDDLE, April 14.—Mr. and Mrs. O. V. Logsdon were hosts Sunday at their annual Easter dinner party having as their guests a group of relatives and friends. A turkey dinner was served cafeteria style at one o'clock and the afternoon spent in games and social visiting. An Easter egg hunt was enjoyed in the afternoon with Mrs. Oren Ledgerwood winning the prize. Present were Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Riddle and son Donald, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Whitney and daughter, Carol, Mr. and Mrs. Oren Ledgerwood, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Riddle, Mr. and Mrs. L. Grant, Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Johnson and son, Jimmy, Bruce Hubbard, Helena Riddle, Evelyn Hammersley, Lillian Logsdon and Mr. and Mrs. O. V. Logsdon.

LUNCHEON PARTY IS ENJOYABLE AFFAIR

RIDDLE, April 14.—Mrs. J. M. Ledgerwood of Myrtle Creek entertained a party of ladies from Riddle Friday at a one o'clock luncheon at her home. Large bouquets of spring flowers were placed about the room and the table decorations carried out the Easter motif. Covers were laid for Mrs. G. L. Grant, Mrs. Effie Ledgerwood, Mrs. O. V. Logsdon, Mrs. A. P. Johnson, Mrs. Bert Russell, Helena Riddle, Mrs. Oren Ledgerwood and the hostess, Mrs. J. M. Ledgerwood.

Today's Pattern

POPULAR MONK'S FROCK DONS BRIEF BOLEO FOR SPRING

By CAROL DAY

This design gives you a particularly spring-like and charming version of the popular monastic dress which hangs straight and full from the shoulders and drapes into lovely lines when the belt is fastened on. It's so simple and young-looking. And the little puff-sleeved bolero makes it perfect for street wear.

A diagram design, Pattern 8414 is so easy to make that you can finish it in a few hours. You will probably want to make it more than once since it gives such a good chance to work out your favorite color combinations.

Flat crepe, satin and sheers are pretty materials. And think how sweet and cool it will look this summer in voile, with a linen bolero.

Pattern No. 8414 is designed for sizes 12, 14, 16, 18 and 20. Size 14 requires 3 7/8 yards of 39-inch material for the dress; 1 1/3 yards for bolero and belt and 14 yards of braid or ribbon.

Dagwood Meets the Boss

So far as "Blondie" is concerned, man's place is in the home and the sooner husband Dagwood Bumstead learns it, the happier will be the Bumstead homestead. It's a scene from "Blondie Meets the Boss," sequel to "Blondie" and also based on the Chic Young cartoon strip. Penny Singleton and Arthur Lake are featured in the film, coming to the Rose theatre Sunday for three days. Also in the cast are Larry Simms, Jonathan Hale, Linda Winters and Dorothy Moore. The second feature is "Boy Trouble," starring Charlie Ruggles and Mary Boland.
