Today's Pattern

PRACTICALITY IS FEATURE OF FROCK FOR HOUSEWORK

By CAROL DAY

The design in Pattern 8037 shows how pretty a truly practical daytime dress can be. It's very comfortable, because the waistline looks slim without being tight, the bodice, rather than a shoulder yoke, blouses slightly, and gives plenty of freedom for action. The armholes are generous. And, of course, you know the comfort of a button-front dress that goes on in a jiffy and can be spread flat on the board for ironing.

So much for the practicality. The puff sleeves, wide turnover collar and touches of braid attend to the prettiness. Make this dress of gingham, percale or linen for housework. And have it in silk print or flat crepe for shopping and runabout, omitting the pockets for a more tailored effect.

Pattern No. 8037 is designed for sizes 14, 16, 18, 20, 42 and 44. With long sleeves, size 16 requires 5 1/4 yards of 35-inch material, with short sleeves, 4 1/2 yards; 33 yards of braid.

Send your order to the News-Review, Pattern Department, Roseburg, Oregon.

The new SPRING AND SUMMER PATTERN BOOK, 32 pages of attractive designs for every size and every occasion is now ready. Photographs show dresses made from these patterns being worn; a feature you will enjoy. Let the charming designs in this new book help you in your sewing. One pattern and the new Spring and Summer Pattern Book—25 cents. Pattern or book alone—15 cents.
