

News of Douglas County

ELKTON

ELKTON, April 18.—Mrs. Desie Gates, of Eugene, was at the home of Charley W. Asherly, Sunday to visit her small son, Richard.

Mrs. Harvey Cooper has returned from Portland where she was on a three weeks visit.

Harold Smith has returned from the hospital at North Bend where he has been a patient.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Bowman, a daughter, April 11.

J. L. Rowe, of Roseburg, was attending to business matters in Elkton Tuesday.

Gib Hallor, of Forest Grove, has been visiting W. A. Sherman.

Robert Griffith has returned from North Bend where he had a tonsil operation.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Jones and Blanch Howe took Sylvia Rowe back to the hospital at North Bend Tuesday. Miss Rowe left the hospital Sunday but had to return for treatment.

Mrs. Enid Anderson, of Kellogg, was an Elkton visitor Wednesday.

Mrs. A. A. Parks, of Eugene, is visiting at the H. Parks home.

Mrs. Corn Conley and Mrs. Margaret Seibie, of Portland, are visiting the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Griffith.

Paul Applegate, of Scottsburg, was attending to business matters in Elkton Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Rule are moving into their home in Elkton. The Rules are moving from their ranch they sold last fall to a California party.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Sawyers and Mrs. E. M. Owens were Roseburg visitors Wednesday.

CAMAS VALLEY

CAMAS VALLEY, April 14.—Miss Nancy Wistler, a teacher in the Portland schools, spent several days of her Easter vacation last week with Miss Mildred Candler. Miss Candler went to Portland with her friend to spend the weekend and Easter Sunday.

Dorothy Umley was quite ill last week and unable to attend school.

Mrs. Albert Kroegel has been ill with a bad cold for the past ten days. Mrs. E. W. Huntley has been taking care of her and doing the housework.

Stanley Brothers brought a heavy grader up from Ophir last week and will use it later to keep their logging road in good condition. They brought a reconditioned Fordson tractor with rubber tires a short time ago and will use it to pull the grader. Jimmie Adamek of Oalla has been helping them get their machinery in running order for spring work.

The eighth grade class enjoyed the entertainment given them in Roseburg Saturday. Ross Brown took them in and brought them out in the evening.

James Baughman went to Eugene Friday evening returning Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Ora Charles of Newberg spent several days last week visiting her sister, Mrs. Anna Morse.

Miss Esther Brown came home Wednesday night from Medford and visited until Sunday afternoon, with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Brown.

Walter Martindale came home from the Veterans hospital Saturday and stayed at his home until Sunday afternoon, when he was taken back to the hospital. He is much improved in health.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Couates and daughter, Helen, came out from Astoria Friday and spent the weekend and Sunday at the R. W. Dick home. Max Dick of Marshfield, was also home Sunday.

Mrs. Myrtle Wolcott and son, Glenn, are visiting relatives in Portland. Dave Thrush and his sister, Musie, are taking care of the

OUR BOARDING HOUSE

with

Major Hoopie

DAYS CREEK

DAYS CREEK, April 15.—Mr. and Mrs. John Ullam visited with Bill Butler at Glendale, Sunday.

Ray White was attending to business matters in Canyonville, Saturday.

Tom Howell, who has been spending some time in San Francisco, returned here Saturday.

Florence Moore, who is employed at the Bridge Tavern in Canyonville, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Moore, Sunday.

Clinton Atherton, who is employed by the Standard Oil company of California, is visiting his father, Claude Atherton.

Steve Zvonar, who is employed at the South Umpqua Falls CCC camp, is spending a week at the Pete Ullam home.

Mabel Moore, Clinton Atherton and Claude Atherton were Canyonville visitors Sunday.

A. E. Moore, J. W. Montgomery and Ivan Welch visited their respective families over the weekend.

Violet Goin was the guest of Mildred and Geraldine Spore during the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Simms of Eugene were guests at the home of Mr. Simm's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Boyd, Sunday.

Pratt Stone, Mrs. Bob Telkamp and Ray Perdue were Roseburg visitors Friday.

H. H. Racher, who had been spending the past week with his family here, returned to his work at the Steamboat CCC camp.

Mrs. Ivan Welch, accompanied by her son, Noel, and Nettie Moore, attended to business in Canyonville, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roland Montgomery of Coquille were guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Montgomery, during the week-end.

Mrs. Walter Hutchinson and her daughters, Gem and Wilhelma, were attending to business matters in Roseburg, Saturday. While there Mrs. Hutchinson received medical attention.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Sellers of Portland recently visited at the Fritz Snyder home. Mrs. Sellers and Mrs. Snyder are twin sisters.

Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Fisher and children, Shirley, Norma and Jimmie, and Mrs. E. P. Ballou of Killy's Corner, were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Poole.

Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Ostinger and son, Junior, of Tule Lake, California, were visiting friends and relatives here during the week-end. They are well known here, having lived here for some time before going to Tule Lake.

Bob Telkamp of Eagle Point visited at the C. C. Stone home. Mrs. Telkamp, who has been visiting at the Stone home for some time, returned home with him.

Mrs. Pete Ullam, who underwent an emergency appendectomy Friday evening at the Mercy hospital in Roseburg, is getting along very nicely according to latest reports.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Higgins, who were Canyonville visitors Thursday, were accompanied on their return by their grandson, Bucky Loffer.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Allen and son, Alfred and Donnie, of Portland, were guests at the Mike Lisen home for several days recently.

Mrs. Allen is Mr. and Mrs. Lisen's daughter.

John Hutchinson, Nicky Racher and Muri Hutchinson, who are students at Oregon State college, and Russell Wood, who is employed in Corvallis, enjoyed Easter with their respective families.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Wright and Mrs. Ray Wright were Roseburg visitors, Monday. While there they visited at the Mercy hospital. Mrs. Gordon Clark, who had gone into Roseburg Sunday to be with her mother, Mrs. Ullam, returned home with them.

There was a slide on the upper South Umpqua road near Coffee Pot camp, Sunday. It was removed by the bulldozer from Coffee Pot camp.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Loffer and son, Bucky, of Canyonville, visited with Mrs. Loffer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Higgins, Sunday.

The members of the local eighth grade marketing club enjoying the events in Roseburg Saturday were Dolly Widrig, Geraldine Spore, Violet Goin, Marjorie Wright, Harry Wooster, James Ward, John Wright and Melvin Welch. They were accompanied by Miss Gem Hutchinson.

The picnic ground at the mouth of Slim Water on the Beale creek road was the scene of a very pleasant Easter Sunday picnic. Those enjoying the day were Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Ostinger and son, Junior, of Tule Lake, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Mather, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Brock and daughter, Tessie, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Spore and children, Lyle, Mildred and Geraldine, Mrs. C. E. Feaster and Violet Goin.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Welch and children, Noel, Melvin, Alice and Hazel, were the dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Wright and family Sunday.

Pete and Calvin Ullam were Roseburg visitors Saturday. While there they visited their aunt, Mrs. P. E. Ullam, who is a patient at the Mercy hospital.

A group taking advantage of the beautiful spring weather, Sunday, and picnicking at the beautiful grounds at the South Umpqua Falls included Mr. and Mrs. Don Allen and sons, Don and Alfred, of Portland, Mrs. Mike Lisen, Susie Crisp, Juanita Lisen and James Farr.

Mrs. Alva Matthews, accompanied by little Ivan Welch accompanied by little Louis Ellen Adams, who has been visiting at 9 1/2 Matthews home, went to Medford Friday. They were met there by Lois Ellen's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Adams, who took her to her home in California. Mrs. Adams is Mrs. Matthews's niece.

Mrs. B. G. Campbell and Miss May Gross went to Yoncalla to spend the week-end with relatives. They were accompanied as far as Green by Marjorie Wright, who after spending Friday night there and picnicking at the beautiful Paris, went to Roseburg Saturday morning to take part in the 4-H Marketing day.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Wright and the former's mother went to Roseburg late Wednesday upon learning that Mrs. P. E. Ullam had undergone an emergency appendectomy. Mrs. Ray Wright remained until Saturday evening when she returned with J. B. Wright.

Mrs. and Mrs. Alva Perdue, Mrs. Amanda Widwig, Jay Wright and his son, Harry, were Roseburg visitors Saturday, having taken various members of the local marketing club to their county meeting.

A very pleasant picnic was enjoyed, Sunday, at the site of the old Brew CCC camp where a very nice picnic ground has been developed by erecting tables and stoves on the grounds bordering on Elk creek. Those enjoying the day were Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Bratton and children, Betty, Roy, Ralph and Luke, Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Cook and son, Don, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Cook and children, Gloria, Dorothy, Bobby, Freddy and Harry, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Bonney and sons, Bob and Gilbert, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Thomson and son, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Short and Ed Williams.

place during their absence.

Miss Edna Brown of Roseburg visited Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stoy Martindale.

Miss Gwendolyn Weaver went to Myrtle Creek Saturday evening to spend Easter with her parents.

Al and Dick Thomas and Abbie Lawson came from Portland Saturday evening to spend Easter Sunday at their homes here. They returned to Portland Sunday evening.

Mrs. Lizzie Murray of Roseburg spent the week-end and Sunday at the home of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Z. T. Murray.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Spencer of Roseburg spent Sunday at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Amstein.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer White are visiting relatives in California.

Miss Lula Roberts and her friend, Miss Dorothy Thompson, of Newberg, are spending the week at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Roberts. The girls both attend Pacific college in Newberg and are enjoying their Easter vacation.

Mrs. Frances Cornwell, Mr. and Mrs. Art Miller and Joe Abel all of Newberg, are spending the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Criffens. Mrs. Cornwell is Mr. Criffens's daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Smith and two sons from Portland visited over the week-end at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith and his sister, Mrs. Isaac Dahl.

John Kelley left the first of the week to truck logs from Sutherlin to the Ford mill in Roseburg. He is batching at Winchester.

Mr. and Mrs. George Smith, Mrs. Florence Gilmore and Claude Freeman enjoyed an outing Monday when they went to Marshfield to dig clams.

Mrs. H. C. Boyle and Wilma Martindale went to Marshfield Sunday to spend the day. Mr. Boyle has been transferred to Marshfield from the Eugene railroad yards.

Frank and Henry Church went to Eugene on business Monday.

Patty Denu left for Medford on the noon bus Monday after spending the Easter vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Denn.

Mr. and Mrs. George Clark and son, of Bridge, spent Easter Sunday at the home of the former's mother, Mrs. Alice Clark.

Norman and Don Coon went to Klamath Falls on business Monday. Charlie Wiley went with them to Talent to visit a daughter, Mrs. Joe Neagus, until their return. They came home late Tuesday evening and brought the Coon brother's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Coon, of Klamath Falls, with them for a few weeks visit.

Arthur Brown, State Grange organizer from Salem, called on his sister, Mrs. Ernest Wheeler, for a few moments Wednesday morning while on his way to the coast country to attend to grange business.

T. G. Lawson received 650 White Leghorn baby pullets and Percy Wolcott received 600 last week. Both flocks are getting nicely started.

some of her teeth broken, when another youngster gave her head a push, while she was drinking at the water fountain. Joanne's mother, Mrs. Daisie Lyons, took her to Eugene Tuesday to have her teeth repaired.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Phillips and family of Portland spent the week-end here at the Deik home. Little Mary Phillips spent the week here with her grandparents while her parents visited the Frisco fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Wilcox moved their household goods to Portland last week where they will reside.

Mr. and Mrs. Chad Sparks and daughter, Silvia, of Portland spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lon Applegate. They were accompanied home by Mrs. Applegate for a week's stay in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Veley of Multnomah have returned to Drain and are now residing at the L. C. Veley home. Gilbert is employed at the Webfoot garage. Mrs. Veley was formerly Betty Weitzel, and resided in north Drain with her parents.

CLEVELAND

CLEVELAND, April 19.—Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Patrick, of Eugene, spent a few weeks on the C. B. Patrick place as guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. Meredith. Mr. Patrick and Mr. O. W. Wallace spent a week in repair work and bridge construction at work on the place, assisted by Robert Meredith.

Betty Ann Taylor, Helen Krohn, Betty Nachter, Robert Meredith, Albert Young and Henry O. Krohn, Jr., were among those taking the audiometer tests at Fullerton school. H. O. Krohn, Sr., furnished transportation.

The W. Toppings, Sr., and the W. Toppings, Jr., have leased the Good place and have moved here from Loan Lake, Oregon. Robert Toppings and Margaret Toppings have entered Cleveland school.

A new piano was delivered to the Cleveland school by Ott's Music house.

Albert Young, Stanford Nelson and Henry O. Krohn, Jr., attended the marketing day activities in Roseburg, Saturday. In addition to their essay completion, and text book completion, each one completed a plat map of the farm of his parents—complete with key.

Mrs. M. M. Meredith, who has been ill, is reported to be much improved. Meredith has been unable to attend school at senior high, because of illness.

Ray Doerner, who with Mr. Grow of Roseburg, drove to Portland to attend the Future Farmers' speaking contest, returned Sunday.

TENMILE

TENMILE, April 18.—Mr. and Mrs. James Homolka, Jr., and daughter, Lillian Jean, and Mr. Homolka's brother, Clarence, spent the week-end with Mr. Homolka's parents in Canby, Oregon. Mr. and Mrs. James Homolka, Sr., formerly resided in Oalla and have just recently purchased a twelve-acre farm in Canby, Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Claire Vaughn and daughter, Camella Bell, from Eugene, were visiting in Tenmile and returned Saturday afternoon. Mr. Vaughn spent the afternoon fishing while Mrs. Vaughn and daughter visited with friends in the valley and spent the night with Mrs. Vaughn's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Brown, who reside in Sutherlin.

Mr. and Mrs. Myron Yorke and son, Myron, and daughter, Beth, and Mrs. Jim Divine and daughter, Marie, spent Saturday at the coast. Mr. and Mrs. Myron Yorke and son, Myron, and daughter, Beth, from Oregon, Illinois, are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Divine. Mrs. Yorke is a sister of Mrs. Divine. Mr. and Mrs. Divine and daughter, Marie, came here from Willard, Montana, about three years ago and are farming the James Spange place.

Work on the Tenmile grade school building will be completed about May 1. The equipment is all in the building. There are 32 small desks and 18 large ones. Work remaining to be done includes installing an electric water pump and building a pump house. The new school, located in school district No. 7, about seventeen miles south of Roseburg, is a one-story frame building with two class rooms and library and a furnace room. Total cost of construction was $20,000. A PWA grant of $4,500 was allotted for the project. This is one of three rural schools built by communities in Douglas county with the aid of the PWA, the other two are located in Edenbower and Garden Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Wilson were shopping and transacting business in Roseburg Saturday.

J. M. McCaffrey attended the directors' board meeting of the West Douglas Electric Coop, in Roseburg, Saturday.

James Homolka is building a large poultry house on his farm. George Brooks is employed at the J. L. Cabot farm.

Henry Huebner, who recently injured his foot with an axe while working in Standley Brothers logging camp at Camas Valley, is at home in Tenmile convalescing satisfactorily.

Otto Huebner is putting more improvements on his ranch. He is building a granary and implement shed combined.

MAYOR CELEBRATES WHISKERS' "BIRTH"

MONTESSANO, Wash., April 29.—(AP)—Mayor J. E. Calder had an anniversary celebration of his own today. The mayor, whose 15-inch flowing beard is the pride of Grays Harbor country, celebrated the 47th birthday of his whiskers.

He recalled that on April 29, 1882, he arrived in Seattle from Minnesota with 25 cents in his pocket. It was either eat or shave. He said he hasn't missed a meal and has never shaved since.

Veneer board, spruce boat and drain board lumber, plaster board, Masonite, etc., at Page's, Main and Washington—Adv.

ROCKY MOUNT, N. C., April 19.—(AP)—Fifteen school children were injured and a negro man was killed in a collision near here today between a school bus and a fertilizer truck.

The children, ranging in age from 8 to 12 years, were taken to hospitals, where reports said none was believed to be seriously injured.

ONE DIES, 15 HURT IN BUS-TRUCK CRASH

There was a slide on the upper South Umpqua road near Coffee Pot camp, Sunday. It was removed by the bulldozer from Coffee Pot camp.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Loffer and son, Bucky, of Canyonville, visited