ON THE ROAD TO BUMPETY

By G. M. LEEPER
On the road to bumpety
Down a bumpy hill,
If the road top
Won't hold you,
The boggy bottom will.

You may slide along
Or stay up there on top,
The road is always willing
To take you where you stop.

On the road to bumpety
You may feel the bumps,
But roads are always made
Among the blasted stumps.

And it taken a lot of
"Blasting"
And leaves a lot of pain,
But roads for tomorrow
Were never built in vain.

Today's Pattern

THIS SMART AFTERNOON DRESS FEATURES SLIMMING LINES

By CAROL DAY

Here's a charming design in Pattern No. 8446 that proves large women can wear the new type of softy-detailed dress beautifully, when the details are designed to meet their special requirements. In this dress it is done by means of graceful sleeves cut in one with the shoulder yoke, by bodice gathers that assure correct fit over the bust, and by jabot trims that have a lengthening, concealing effect. A narrow vestee adds the smart touch of white to the deep V-neck line.

The dress is decidedly slenderizing in silhouette, thanks to the paneled skirt, and to the lifted waistline, which flattens the diaphragm and makes the midriff look slim. In flat crepe, georgette or chiffon this will be an unusually successful bridge, luncheon and platform dress.

Pattern No. 8446 is designed for sizes 36, 38, 40, 42, 44, 46, 48, 50 and 52. Size 40 requires 5 1/2 yards of 39-inch material; 3 1/2 yard for vestee, 18 inches wide.

Brings Orchestra To Roseburg For One-Night Gaiety

Chuck Foster, orchestra leader who has been engaged at Topsy's cafe in Los Angeles for the last 20 weeks, brings his orchestra to the Roseburg armory on Tuesday night, April 25, for a one-night engagement, under sponsorship of the Umpqua post of the American Legion.

During Chuck's engagement at Topsy's, he was called upon one night to routine a dance for the floor show. Chuck, being a very versatile fellow, not only plays the clarinet and saxophone exceptionally well but knows considerable about dancing. As he stepped down off the band stand to show a young lady the way he thought the best satisfaction of the show, he became not only interested in this girl's dancing but in her private life as well.

This past week the little dancer, who was originally Virginia Bidwell, and Chuck Foster, hopped off to Yuma, Arizona, and were married in real movie star fashion.

But here is the tapper of the whole story: Annabella, the movie star from Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, had to be her own stand-in on the set that day, because Virginia Bidwell (now Mrs. Chuck Foster) as well as being a very fine little dancer, is also stand-in for Annabella at the studios.

T. E. Grae, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Palmer from Canby are visiting with the former's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Palmer.

Orin Baker went to Marshfield Sunday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Parker, Mr. and Mrs. George Ayers and family spent Saturday fishing in Polly creek. They report a limit catch.

Mrs. Harry Hill and daughter, Shirley, left for Wickapee Thursday to be gone until the first of May. Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Russell are looking after her family while she is absent.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Russell, Mr. and Mrs. George Ayers, Dick and Junior Brown, Wesley Fitch and Harry Braid went to Brewster valley on a fishing trip Sunday.

Ivan Bridge, who is employed as section foreman at Marcola spent the weekend here with his family.

GLENDALE SENIORS SELECT COMEDY

GLENDALE, April 20.—The seniors of Glendale high school have chosen a comedy-drama, "The Saturday Evening Ghost," for their class play. Rehearsals will begin next week, as the play will be presented early in May. Mr. Huntington, class advisor, will be director.

The cast has been selected as follows: Lord Canterville, a young English peer, and Sir Simon, his seventeenth-century ancestor, both played by Bob Lewis; Hiram Otis, an American manufacturer, Lee Belcher; Lucretia, his wife, Clara Winkelman; Virginia, their daughter, aged about twenty; Lety Whately; Sonny Boy, a twelve-year-old, Eugene Brady; Pet, his twin sister, Bertha Nixon; Mrs. Umney, a housekeeper; Flora Martin; Lord Archibald Archibald, who lives next door; Darrell Craddock.

The plot concerns the adventures of an American family in England. Hiram Otis rents the ancient Canterville castle from Lord Canterville. The Otis family comes to live in the castle, derisively skeptical of the legend that it is haunted by the ghost of Sir Simon de Canterville, a seventeenth-century knight. However, their skepticism is short-lived, for one Saturday night, Virginia meets the ghost in person. Then follows a charming and delightful romance, between the American girl and the ghost of Sir Simon. Because of a youthful indiscretion, he has been doomed to walk the earth every Saturday night, searching for a girl who knew how to bake an old-fashioned plum pudding. Finally Sir Simon joins his ancestors, and Virginia finds her real romance.
