A wedding of much interest here is that of Miss Virginia Wilson, daughter of Mrs. Arthur Addison, of Roseburg, and Robert A. Plaus, in the historic St. Clement's church in Honolulu, Hawaii, at five o'clock, April 7. The Rev. E. Tanner Brown performed the impressive wedding ceremony in the presence of a small group of friends.
 The wedding date was told at a charming party on April 5 at the home of Miss Alpha Sackett in Honolulu, at which time the announcements were found in fortunes in the tea cakes. Hawaiian music was played at the party. The guests included the officers of the U. S. navy stationed at Honolulu and their wives and the personnel of the Castle and Cooper Ltd. and the W. A. Ramsey Ltd.
 The bride is well known in Roseburg, have visited her mother here. She was graduated from Eugene high school and later attended Oregon State college. She is a member of Zeta Tau Alpha sorority. For ten years, she was a secretary in the World War veterans state aid commission office in Salem, before resigning two years ago to take a world cruise and later going to Honolulu, where she has been employed at the Castle and Cooper Ltd., an secretary. She will continue her work for Castle and Cooper. The bridegroom is an electrical engineer for W. A. Ramsey Ltd. They are making their home at Dowsett Highlands, Honolulu.
 Mr. and Mrs. Plaus plan to come to New York next year and will then travel to Roseburg to pay a visit to the latter's mother, Mrs. Addison.

POET'S CORNER

The following was printed in the April number of Cycle.
WAY OF A MAN
 He went away across the hills;
 I watched him disappear
 From my small world, and knew his result
 A Jazzer hemisphere.
 He listened to the Siren song
 Of wave and rolling sea,
 He gave his heart to ships and sails
 When it belonged to me.
 I fill my lamp and trim the wick
 And let it shine afar,
 But he is off to Bananaland,
 And steering by a star.
 —Margaret Hunt Pettit.

For Your FAMILY

Do you spend long, weary hours at the washbasin because you want to make sure that only clean hands touch the laundry your precious family wears?
 It is unnecessary when you can be sure of perfect sanitation, hospital cleanliness, even more stringent than that at home,
