OAKLAND TEACHER GETS ANOTHER POST

OAKLAND, April 22.—Lyle V. Hogue, principal of the Oakland grade school and teacher of the seventh and eighth grades for the past ten years, has been appointed to the faculty of the Powellhurst school of Portland. The Powellhurst school is in a suburban residential district and is noted for maintaining the highest standards. Mr. Hogue will teach English, arithmetic and industrial arts.

Mr. Hogue has been favorably known throughout the county for his grade school operettas. This year Mr. Hogue is directing the operetta, "In Grand Old Switzerland." Indications point to record attendance at this performance on the evening of Friday, April 28.

During the past two years Mr. Hogue has also taught industrial arts to the high school. Mr. Hogue was visited in his room and shop before he was tendered a contract. His employers were so pleased

Daily Devotions

DR. CHARLES A. EDWARDS

King David prayed one day, "Show me Thy way, O Lord, teach me Thy paths." It is a rather solemn thing to make such a prayer. It means a readiness to walk in the ways of God, and to follow along the paths as they are made clear and plain to us. It would be altogether a mockery to make such a prayer as that on any other basis. To make such a prayer means coming to terms with God's will and thought for our lives, and being ready to be led by His hand into the way of duty and obedience and service. Glad and easy-spoken words are not what God is asking of us, but the commitment of our lives and our wills. We would seek wisdom from Thee, our God, and Father, and ask for Thy light to shine upon the pathway of our lives, but especially we pray that we may have grace and power to follow Thy leading and to do the good that we know to be good. Do Thou strengthen us for Jesus' sake. Amen.
