MILWAUKEE—A drowsy motorist, with an equally drowsy sidekick in the back seat, drove into what he thought was a public garage. To the crowd that gathered, he explained, solemnly:

"We're looking for a place to sleep."

So the two were booked on an open charge, because all in the crowd were policemen and the garage belonged to central station.

Nazis In—Jews Out

Another Nazi conquest—another exodus of Jews. The now familiar story of what has been happening all over Europe is summed up in this photo of a street in Mamel at the head of which hangs a swastika flag, on the stones of which stand rickety carts filled with the belongings of Jews who flee the Baltic seaport city as it is annexed by Hitler.
