Today's Pattern

Three Aprons in One Design Will Be Useful for Summer

By CAROL DAY

Make yourself a fresh supply of useful aprons like this, and have two or three sets put away for occasional gifts, too. The design in Pattern No. 8095 includes two very different pinafore styles and one dainty tie-around. You can finish them quickly and easily, in odd moments.

Even this simple pattern includes a step-by-step sew chart. And the aprons require so little material that you probably will have enough percale, calico, linen or batiste, left over from your other sewing to make all three. Better get them finished now, before your summer-time guests arrive.

Pattern No. 8095 is designed for small, medium and large sizes. Medium size requires, for apron No. 1, 5-8 yard of 35-inch material and 1 yard contrasting; for apron No. 2, 1-7-8 yards and 4 1/2 yards of brail or bias binding; for apron No. 3, 1-5-8 yards and 3 1/2 yards of brail or bias binding.

The new SPRING and SUMMER PATTERN BOOK, 32 pages of attractive designs for every size and every occasion is now ready. Photographs show dresses made from these patterns being worn; a feature you will enjoy. Let the charming designs in this new book help you in your sewing. One pattern and the new Spring and Summer Pattern Book—25 cents. Patterns or book alone—15 cents.

POET'S CORNER

THE WHITE ROSE HAS BLOOMED AGAIN

By G. M. LEEPER

Last night it was a bud; This morning it's out. Tomorrow its petals Will be scattered about.

But we remembered its blossoms From long ago, And memories like white roses Sweeter grow.

I thought the white roses Were fairer today, Entwined with memories From yesterday.

For memories, like white roses, So rich and fine, They grow in the heart Just like a vine.

The white rose has bloomed again, Pure white and clean, Like a maiden's gown Against the green.
