C. E. GROUP HOLDING ENJOYABLE MEETING

MYRTLE CREEK, May 2.—The local C. E. society enjoyed an "Echo" meeting Sunday night at which time the delegates to the state convention gave their impressions and reports of the various activities of the different sessions and speakers.

The delegates were Gaylord Skinner, president, Elbert Naas, Dorothy Trulove, Wanda Skinner, Stanley Whitney, Miss Kathleen Rose and Minister Walter K. Barnes. The hour of meeting was all too short for seven enthusiastic speakers to tell all they had gained from the three day conference. They decided to continue the theme at some other meeting soon. Highlights mentioned were the banquet held in the high school assembly hall where 1200 were seated at tables at once, and the address given by Governor Sprague on Friday to 2100 delegates. The trip of inspection of the capital provided some thrills also.

MRS. G. R. BATES HOSTESS TO CLUB

MYRTLE CREEK, May 2.—Mrs. G. R. Bates was a gracious hostess to the Jolly Dozen club last Wednesday at her charming home on Fourth and Broadway.

The rooms and tables were decorated with bouquets of spring flowers. The afternoon was spent in visiting, sewing or cards. POET'S CORNER

GIVE ME A SONG THAT GOD HAS MADE

By G. M. LEPPER

Give me a poem
From the heart,
Not just words
That soon depart.

Give me thoughts
From the soul,
Not a soundless bell to toll.

Give me words
That dare to speak,
And thoughts
That earnestly seek.

Give me hope
That does not bend,
But stands erect
To some good end.

Give me a song
That God has made,
And not just words
That quickly fade.
