NATIONAL MUSIC WEEK TO BE CELEBRATED IN ROSEBURG, MAY 7-13

Tomorrow, May 7, is the first day of Music week. The plan of such a week originated in someone's mind twenty years ago and has grown steadily in popularity till now it has become a great American music festival. And the finest thing about it is that it is not an activity of the professional musicians alone but of all the people. And so for the next seven days those who make the music and those who hear it will be partners in bringing to communities all over this country the civilizing and enriching influence that music somehow has on the human heart. Many a distinguished career in music traces its beginning to just such community activities as this.

Schools, churches, lodges, music clubs and other organizations are all working together to give people as much of the best music as possible. But it doesn't all have to be what some people call "highbrow" music. Portland has introduced a novelty this year by setting one day in which every one is urged to whistle! It's "Whistle While You Work" day!

Roseburg's regular Music week programs start on Sunday when the Men's Glee club sings on the Angelus Hour on the radio. Monday evening at the Presbyterian church Mr. Canaday's orchestra gives an interesting program. And on Thursday evening at the same place the Douglas County Music Teachers association sponsors a real community Music week program in which various musical organizations of the community and individuals will take part. Other announcements will be made as the week progresses. Roseburg has been known as one of the most musical cities in Oregon and this week will be a joy to music lovers—and that means most of us. And, as usual in Music week, the special programs are all free to the public.

UMPQUA SQUAWS DISBAND AND PRESENT GIFT OF MONEY TO LOCAL LIBRARY

The Roseburg Umpqua Squaws, organized July 11, 1924, met Monday evening with Mrs. H. C. Darby, president, in charge, and the organization voted to disband and the money left in the treasury was voted to be given to the Roseburg public library to purchase books on Oregon history.

The Umpqua Squaws was the auxiliary to the Umpqua Chiefs, which was organized here by George Neuner in 1923. The auxiliary's motto was "civic boosters" and charter members attending the Monday meeting included Mrs. T. H. Ness, Mrs. H. C. Berg and Mrs. H. C. Darby.

Mrs. L. J. Barnes was the first president of the organization, which for so many years accomplished a great amount in advertising Roseburg and the Umpqua valley, as well as to assist in all types of community welfare work and Roseburg projects of civic interest. Because of Mrs. Barnes' exceptionally fine work and service to the organization, she was later made an honorary member. Miss Agnes Pitchford, Douglas county juvenile officer was also elected as an honorary member of the club, as she contributed greatly to the organization's work in community welfare work.

Besides the charter members present Monday were Mrs. Alvia Wetherell, secretary, Mrs. J. M. Judd, Mrs. E. J. Brown, Mrs. Storylies and Mrs. Irvin Brunn.

The organization sponsored the banquet in 1924 at the Palace of Sweets, at which time the Roseburg Business and Professional Women's club was instituted with Miss Rosa B. Parrott as its first president. In 1925 the group furnished curtains for the county hospital, assisted by donating $20 to the health seal drive and helped with the state music teachers convention held in Roseburg. Throughout the years, the group helped various families in need of food, clothing and medical attention.

One of the major projects of the organization was to assist the Umpqua Chiefs in sponsoring annually the Roseburg Strawberry carnival. Pet and baby parades were especially featured by the group and annually the members maintained a strawberry booth at the carnival to raise money to carry on their year's work. In 1928 the group realized $190 from the strawberry booth.

Money was donated monthly to schools in Roseburg to furnish milk for undernourished children. The community chest, Camp Fire Girls and other civic projects were assisted by donations of money and the members helped to furnish shrubs to the senior high school grounds, as well as to donate to the Roseburg band uniform fund and to give a donation to the local hospital. A donation of $150 was given to the Roseburg public library also. In 1928 the group also paid the $25 membership fee to the Roseburg chamber of commerce.

Mrs. J. M. Judd, Mrs. L. L. Spencer, Mrs. C. S. Holmline, Mrs. Irvin Brunn, Mrs. W. F. Harris, Mrs. J. C. Leedy, Mrs. R. L. Whipple, Mrs. G. M. Krell, Mrs. L. A. Wells, Mrs. W. O. Clinger and Mrs. Guy Cor-

PUBLIC INVITED TO HEAR CONCERT OF ROSEBURG ORCHESTRA

In observance of National Music week, the Roseburg Concert orchestra has announced a very interesting and charming musical program for eight o'clock next Monday evening, May 8th, to be held at the Methodist Episcopal church. No charge for this concert will be made and a most cordial invitation has been extended music lovers of Roseburg and vicinity to attend.

H. A. Canaday is director of the Roseburg Concert orchestra, which is well known in Roseburg as a very fine musical organization, having presented numerous programs during the past few years and assisting a number of musical activity projects in this city.

Mrs. Walter Sandquist is pianist for the orchestra with Mrs. Homer Grow as organist.

Mrs. Elsie Carlton Strang, of Medford, will be the guest artist on the program, singing two groups of charming numbers. Mrs. Strang is very well known here, having been a leader in musical circles for many years in Roseburg, before moving to Medford with her family. She had a large class of voice pupils at the time of her residence here. Mrs. Frances Lintott will accompany Mrs. Strang's solos. Mrs. Strang's many Roseburg friends are delighted of this opportunity of hearing her sing again.

H. J. Mahoney, of Oakland, prominent Douglas county musician, will play baritone horn solos on the program.

The orchestra personnel includes George Hammer, J. J. Eastling, Mrs. Bula Roach, William Ott, Peter Crumett, Mrs. Ira Debolt Mann, Mary Alice Wolford, Mariel Huber, Clyde Carstens, Dale Strange, H. E. Mahoney, Wayne Howe, Walter Kay, James Smith, Jr., Frank Wickham, W. J. Olmscheid, Leland Rutter, Joseph Houseolder and Charles Hartley.

The interesting program includes:

The Drum Major—(Jacob Henry Ellis).

Under the Double Eagle—(Wagner).

Rosemary—(Reynard), by orchestra.

Soprano solos—"Thou'rt Like a Lovely Flower" (Rubenstein); "Ava Maria" (Franz Schubert). "Hark, Hark, the Lark" (Franz Schubert) Mrs. Elsie Carlton Strang; accompanist, Mrs. Frances Lintott.

Hungarian Dance No. 5 (John Brahms).

Overture — Consecration (Kelor Bela).

Moonlight in Venice—A Reverie (Markie-Beyer).

By orchestra.

Baritone horn solos—"Don Quixote" (Walter M. Smith), "Country Garden," "Handkerchief Dance" (A. R. Range), H. J. Mahoney; accompanist, Mrs. Esther Hakenson.

The Winner (Gustave Schuman), orchestra.

Soprano solos—"My Heart Hath a Song" (Huntington Woodman, "Into the Night" (Clara Edwards), "The Wind's In the South" (John Prindle Scott), Mrs. Elsie Carlton Strang; accompanist, Mrs. Frances Lintott.

Il Trovatore (G. Verdi).
