IOTA SIGMA CLUB TO ENJOY POTLUCK SUPPER

The Iota Sigma club members will entertain their husbands and invited guests at a delightful potluck supper at six-thirty o'clock Friday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Weatherford on the North Pacific highway. If the weather is bad, the group will hold the supper at the Methodist Episcopal church parson. Those attending have been asked to bring their own table service.

Mrs. E. C. Jones and Mrs. Kenneth Ford are joint chairmen of the supper. A program and social hour will follow.

Rev. Laurence G. Leavitt, pastor of the First Christian church, will be guest speaker on the program.

Today's Pattern

YOU LOOK YOUR PRETTIEST IN THIS APRON PROCK

Don't let the charm of this design lead you into thinking it is frivolous.

It's one of the most practical, comfortable styles you ever wore for housework. Those fluttering ruffled sleeves give complete freedom for reaching and stretching. The waist, cut in a point and topped with a button, looks beautifully slim. It is drawn in snugly by the elastic belt that ties in the back, so that it can be made as unobtrusive as you please. Even the triangular pockets add to their convenient fit.

Make this up in sports silk or flannel, or as well as in calico, percale or flannel. The pattern is a very easy one, with its detailed new chart.

Pattern 8434 is designed for sizes 32, 34, 36, 38, 40, 42 and 44. Size 34 requires 3 yards of 35-inch material; 21 yards of 44-inch material. Send your order to the News-Review, Pattern Department, Roseburg, Ore.

The new SPRING and SUMMER PATTERN BOOK, 32 pages of attractive designs for every size and every occasion is now ready. Photographs show dresses made from these patterns being worn; a feature you will enjoy. Let the charming designs in this new book help you in your sewing. One pattern and the new Spring and Summer Pattern Book—25 cents.

Send your order to the News-Review, Pattern Department, Roseburg, Oregon.

SURPRISE SHOWER GIVEN MRS. ZEITLER AT FARRIS HOME FRIDAY EVENING

A charming surprise shower party honoring Mrs. Octavia Zeitler was given Friday evening at the attractive home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Farris on East Lane street. Beautiful bouquets of mixed spring flowers were used about the room.

Sewing, visiting and games were enjoyed, after which the many lovely gifts were presented to Mrs. Zeitler from Mrs. Roy Clark, Mrs. Frank Burr, Mrs. Hattie Patterson, Mrs. Lee McEachern, Mrs. Crum, Mrs. Wallace Robertson, Mrs. Alice Hamilton, Mrs. Richard Reed, Mrs. Roy Hines, Mrs. Val Strong, Mrs. Alton Burk, Mrs. Lela Delaney, Mrs. Earl Byrd, Mrs. Henry Spelman, Mrs. Russell Ingalls, Mrs. Ira Byrd, Miss Sammie Collins, Mrs. Evelyn Thompson, Miss Violet Cole, Miss Eleanor Knowles, Miss Elsie Hudson, Miss Ruth Koster and the hostess, Mrs. J. W. Farris.

Later in the evening Mrs. Farris served delicious refreshments.

PUBLIC INVITED TO PROGRAM AT PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH THURSDAY NIGHT

The next major music week event will be tomorrow, Thursday evening, at eight o'clock at the Presbyterian church. This concert will be especially interesting because four of Roseburg's musical organizations are taking part in it, and in addition various special features, vocal and instrumental, have been arranged. Under the sponsorship of the Music Teachers' association, are the Roseburg high school orchestra, the Women's Choral club, the Roseburg men's Glee club and the P. W. Glee club. They all unite in inviting their friends and the public to come Thursday evening and enjoy the program, which of course is free. The people of Roseburg, and in fact, of the whole United States, have been entering into the spirit of music week with more enthusiasm every year. It is now the most enjoyable and most educational festival of the entire year.

POET'S CORNER

WORKING LIKE A DOG

By Lyman A. Fritz
My dog is always watching me at work.
I may be sawing wood, or chinking
flue.

Perhaps I'm pitching hay with might and main,
Beneath a sun that seems like many fires.

I wonder if he's laughing at me
now?
Is there a gleam of satire in his eyes?

I'm "working like a dog" from morn till night!
The most he does is catch a few
stray flies!
