SENIORS HONORED AT DINNER DANCE GIVEN BY MOTHERS SATURDAY

One of the largest and most charming events of the week was the seven o'clock dinner-dance given in honor of the senior graduating class of R. H. S., by their mothers, Saturday evening at the Hotel Umpqua.

Mrs. Roy Bellows was general chairman of the affair, which was one of the most enjoyable of the spring graduating events.

Mrs. A. A. Wilder and Mrs. L. W. Jasso, joint chairmen of the decorations, used the yellow and green colors of the class as the basis for a beautiful motif for the occasion. White bows and matching candleholders, held bouquets of yellow and green flowers, leeks and lilies, while yellow and green cellophane streamers and bows were gracefully arranged from the bouquets to the ends of the tables.

The attractive favors and place-cards were in charge of Mrs. J. E. Walsh and Mrs. H. G. Baker, with Mrs. Carl E. Roseland, chairman of the corsage committee. In situations were in charge of Mrs. C. E. Winkler, who with Mrs. H. Berry and Mrs. J. E. Walsh also had charge of the hotel arrangements for the affair. The finance committee chairmen were Mrs. H. C. Church and Mrs. Harold Gould.

The committee chairmen were assisted by the mothers of the seventy-four senior class members.

Mrs. H. C. Church and Mrs. A. H. Casey were joint chairmen of the delightful program, which was broadcast over KRRR by Marshall Penning, who very splendidly acted as master of ceremonies for the affair, and introduced the following program:

"Welcome Seniors," Mrs. Roy Bellows (mother of class president).

Response to Mothers, Roy Bellows, (class president).

Tan dance, "Little Toy Tramp," Utra Baker, accompanied by Faith Young.

Harp and guitar, two numbers, Pat Glenn.

Vocal solo, "Little Brown Bird Singing," Betty Marsters.

Diana solo, "Manhattan Masquerade," Betty Owen.

Reading, "What the Trouble Was," Mrs. Ma. She Was in It," June Marsters.

Overboard at the Junior-Senior "Picnic," under Mr. Jackson's guidance.

Quartette, Helen White, Dorothy White, Betty Marsters and Mary Bellows.

Class song, written and composed by Helen Jane Kerr, member of class, led by Dolores Coey, school song queen.

Following the program the tables were cleared and dancing was enjoyed.
