TOMORROW is Mother's day. It is a fine custom, to have a day each year designated as one on which to pay special tribute to Mother. This special "day" has been observed for twenty-five years and with each passing year has been heralded with greater enthusiasm.

Until this, its "silver anniversary," Mother's day has been a time when the mothers of the country sat silent and received bouquets.

This year, something is being asked of American mothers. And it is something that each of them—rich and poor alike—can give.

It is a gift that will go to their own children.

They are being asked to give their children—democracy.

* * *

The committee of the American Mothers' Declaration is urging every mother in America to sign this declaration:

"Thankful for the benefits of a free country, I, an American mother, will do my utmost to help my children understand, cherish and guard the five freedoms upon which this nation was founded: Freedom of speech, press, assembly, worship and petition. I will teach my children by my own example that they should respect the rights and opinions of others if they would defend their own, and thus preserve our heritage of liberty against any and all doctrines opposed to the traditions of our nation."

* * *

Such a declaration could have no more compelling sponsorship. When the mothers of America rise against the spurious doctrines that have for their purpose the destruction of freedom, the ism advocates likely will be put in their place. Mothers are generally long suffering, slow to anger, moderate in action. But individually or collectively, there is no stronger moral force on earth.

FOREIGN ministers of Norway, Sweden, Denmark and Finland unite to reaffirming their policy of strict neutrality in European affairs.

They say they propose to STAY OUT of groups formed by European states and in the event of war they will do everything in their power to avoid becoming involved.

They'll fight IF THEY'RE ATTACKED, but not otherwise.

FOLLOWING that policy, Sweden has stayed out of war for 125 years. There's something in that record for us to think about.

Minding her own business has certainly paid Swedes.

MORALS CHARGE DROPPED

A complaint filed in the local justice court early this week against Ralph Southwick of Elkton, charging an act injurious to public morals, has been dismissed upon motion of the complaining witness, it was reported today by Judge R. W. Marsters. The complainant, who had charged Southwick with improper relations with the former's wife, advised the court that there was a mistake in identity and that the complaint should be dismissed. Southwick had not been held in custody, being released without bail following his appearance for preliminary arraignment, when he was given additional time in which to plead.

ANNUAL SALE OF POPPIES PLANNED

Call of Legion Auxiliary For Distributors Meets Generous Response.

Enthusiastic response to the American Legion Auxiliary's call for volunteers to distribute poppies on Poppy days, May 27-28, is reported by Mrs. Lee Williams, Poppy day chairman of Umpqua unit.

"The response to the Poppy day call reminds me of the world war days," Mrs. Williams said. "Now as then, the women of Roseburg are eager to serve in patriotic work. They realize that the wearing of the memorial poppy brings memories of those who believed that life itself was not too much to give for America and rekindles that spirit of patriotism for peace-time service. They realize, too, the great good accomplished by the poppy funds for the welfare of disabled veterans and dependent families."

Funds For Good Cause

All of the workers will serve as unpaid volunteers, permitting every penny received for the poppies to go into the Auxiliary's rehabilitation and welfare funds. This money is the principal source of support for the continuous program of aid for disabled veterans and families of the dead and disabled carried out by the Auxiliary.

The local poppy corps will be part of an army of 100,000 women who will distribute the little red memorial flowers throughout the country on Poppy day, to honor the war dead and raise funds to aid those living in suffering and need because of the war. More than ten million poppies have been made for the day's observance by disabled veterans in government hospitals and auxiliary workrooms, located in 40 states. Fully one million dollars is expected to be received in contributions for the poppies.

CREAMERY PROTEST EYED BY SPRAGUE

SALEM, May 13.—(AP)—Concern for the prosperity of Oregon's creamery industry was expressed by Governor Sprague here today in a letter addressed to R. L. Cavett, secretary-treasurer of the Oregon Creamery Manufacturers association, who recently protested that a U. S. department of agriculture minority had "arbitrarily reduced the rating or grading" of Oregon butter without seeing the product.

The governor declared he did "not want to see anything happen which would jeopardize the position of Oregon as a butter manufacturer" and said he would investigate the matter further "both to ascertain the nature and effect of the grade changes and to determine what the best course of action should be."

"I feel that the state is more or less the tail to the federal kite, when it comes to grades and standards." The governor added, "and agree with you that the place to make representations is with the federal department of agriculture."

Cavett in protests to Governor Sprague, Senators McNary and Holman and Oregon representatives asserted changes in grading practices and standards and forced the lowering of Oregon quality butter of A grade, 92 score, to 91 score when shipped out of state. He estimated Oregon producers of shunting butter stood to lose two cents a pound.

REMODELING OF STUDIO FINISHED

An extensive program of remodeling has been completed at Clark's Studio, where new interior decorations, together with new furniture and fixtures, has added much to appearances and efficiency. The show windows have been built up to provide a much more suitable display. New floor coverings have been provided in the reception room, which has been repainted and decorated, and new fixtures installed.

WHY MOTHER'S GET GRAY

OFFICERS ELECTED BY RHS STUDENTS

Merritt Burt was elected president of the Roseburg senior high school student body for next year at a very closely contested election Friday. Other officers chosen were, junior vice president, Jim Finlay; sophomore vice president, Marian Church; secretary, Velma Crocker; treasurer, Hildegarde Roselund; sergeant-at-arms, Lowell Atterbury. The announcement of the winning candidates was made during the first part of the senior assembly Friday activity period. Announcements concerning the Douglas county play day, the junior-senior prom, the Camp Fire Girls' candy sale, and amendments to the constitution were also made by Marjorie Ott, student body secretary.

Bob Bellows, senior class president, was in charge of the assembly, which was put on by the senior class members and in an introductory fun skit presented a battered tin cup to the vice president of the junior class as a portrayal of the presenting of the interclass rivalry cup, which is very hotly contested between the junior and senior classes every year. Jim Walsh played a saxophone solo; Bob Bellows dedicated a poem, "Mother O' Mine," by Rudyard Kipling, to the mothers of all the members of Roseburg senior high school student body. Principal Clyde H. Beard gave a short talk on mothers and Leroy Hiatt, accompanied by Rosemary Larson, sang a solo, "Mother Machree." Soft music was played throughout the program.

BUND TRIO HALTED IN PASSPORT PLAN

WASHINGTON, May 12.—(AP)—Applications for passports for Fritz Kuhn, leader of the German American bund, and two associates have been held up by the state department since early March, it was disclosed today by an authoritative source.

The department, it was said, postponed granting the passports because of an investigation of the affairs of the three men by New York City authorities. The two associates are Fritz Schwitering and Gerhard Wilhelm Kunz.

Mayor LaGuardia of New York telegraphed Secretary Hull today asking that issuance of passports be held up until the investigation is completed.

The state department, it was learned, will comply with LaGuardia's request.

An official said whenever the department knows of any action under investigation by municipal or state authorities that might result in indictment, action on the application for a passport is deferred a reasonable time.

A passport, the official said, is not a right of a citizen. The secretary of state has the discretion to grant or refuse one as he sees fit.

LOUIS ROTHSCHILD RELEASED BY NAZIS

VIENNA, May 12.—(AP)—Louis Rothschild, a member of the family of noted bankers, was released by the gestapo (secret police) today.

He had been a prisoner since April, 1938.

He left immediately by airplane for Zurich, Switzerland.

Rothschild for 13 months was confined to two rooms on the top floor of Vienna's Metropole hotel, where the gestapo held numerous political prisoners.

His rooms adjoined those of Kurt Schuschnigg, former Austrian chancellor, who presumably still is being held in the building.

It was understood that Rothschild, once one of the most influential financial leaders in the Danube valley, would have been released sooner had there not been complicated negotiations involving his property holdings in Austria.

RAMBLINGS

By PAUL JENKINS

I JOINED the window ledge sitters in front of Reynolds & Adams store in Myrtle Creek yesterday afternoon, and we settled the affairs of the nation, including the hash of various and sundry individuals.

Hardrock Sam Thackeray drifted up and identified himself. He has to do this every time he meets me, ever since I heard he had a double living up North Myrtle creek. That Hardrock could have a double may sound incredible to you, but I'm taking no chances. As long as I meet Sam Thackeray and he knows the contersign, it's all right; but I don't want no truck with this rumored double of his'n. The chief thing I've always liked about Sam is that he wasn't twins.

* * *

Henry Adams was telling me that a friend of his was in the store a few days ago. Recently he had visited for a short time in Chico, and while there had met a man who asked him what part of Oregon he was from.

"I'm from Myrtle Creek," Henry's friend answered. "Oh," the Californian said, "I'm sure I remember passing through there. Isn't that the town where a big store fronts the street a little bit below street-level, and where you can see a lot of men sitting on the window-ledges?"

By golly, he knew the place, all right.

Something has been eating the freshly transplanted flowers at our place. Each morning when we go out to inspect them, several plants which were bale and beauty the evening before, will look like moth-eaten feathers.

The Little Lady got her dander up, and last night went gunning with a flashlight. She captured nine snails a couple of inches long, which had gone to roost in the branches of the petunias.

She stepped on them, one by one, shivering each time she did so at the squishy sound they made. But she was so mad she went right through with the job.

If there'd been a record seeking college sophomore in town I reckon he'd have saved her this trouble. But there wasn't. There never is, when you want one.

A steeple jack painted the KRNR tower yesterday noon, and everybody said they were glad that it was the steeple jack, and not them, doing the job, and how they always got lightheaded in high places and would even fall off a 2x4 if it were four feet off the ground, although they could walk it all right if it were flat on the sidewalk; and wasn't it funny how this was.

YONCALLA STUDENTS STAGE BOXING CARD

YONCALLA, May 12.—Joe Lufkin and George Roberts boxed to a four-round draw to headline the annual senior boxing card presented Friday evening at the Yoncalla high school. A large crowd of fans was present to witness the bouts, which were presented by boys from the grade and high school, as well as by alumni boys.

In the three-round bouts Jimmie Madden beat James Doss, Earl Worman won from Keith Crowe, Teddy Madden defeated Raymond Doss, Calvin Doss and Roy Worman fought a draw, James Huntington and Elbert Kingery fought a draw, Carl Wittmeyer and Albert Palmer fought a draw, Norman Maine won from Lew Morin, Bill Wittmeyer and Stewart Mathis fought a draw and Quentin Rychard and LaVerne Thornton fought a draw.

MRS. STAN LAUREL FIGHTS SPREE FINE

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif., May 12.—(AP)—Illiana Laurel, Russian singer and estranged wife of Screen Comedian Stan Laurel, sought today to escape serving a five-day jail sentence and payment of a $100 fine for creating a disturbance in a cafe while intoxicated.

The singer immediately after sentence was pronounced yesterday gave notice of appeal and was freed on $1,000 bond.

Iron Horse Reaches End of Long Run

Lou Gehrig, left, shakes hands with his successor, Babe Dahlgren, after establishing a record that probably will stand forever . . . 2130 consecutive games. The famous first baseman benched himself "for the good of the team." Then the New York Yankees proceeded to smack the Detroit Tigers, 22-2, Dahlgren manufacturing a home run and a double.

RHS TRACK TEAM FOURTH AT MEET

Eugene High Zone's Champ for 5th Time; Tom Simon Stars in Dashes.

Roseburg high school's track and field team placed fourth, with 20 points, in the district four meet held yesterday on Hayward field in Eugene. Eugene high school successfully defeated its fifth consecutive district championship by again walking off with high honors, with 46 points. Other point-winning high schools were Cottage Grove, second, 25 points; University high third, with 27; followed by Mohawk, 13; Junction City, 11; Springfield, 8.

With ideal weather conditions and a fast track, district and state records fell to the wayside as a horde of thinly-clad athletes, led by Eugene's husky trackster, Elliott, launched an onslaught on all existing marks. Elliott broke the state record in the shot put with a mighty toss that measured 52 feet, 2¾ inches and also set a new record in the district discus event with a fling of 121 feet, 1 inch. A teammate, Robertson, broke the district pole vault mark, clearing the bar at 11 feet, 6 inches.

First and second place winners in this meet automatically qualified for the state prep meet scheduled for Hayward field next Friday and Saturday. The Axemen placed seven men, Cottage Grove five, University high six, Roseburg three, Mohawk two, Junction City two. Eugene and Roseburg also qualified their relay teams.

Simon Best Speedster

Coach Jim Watts' Indian cindermen were led by Tom Simon, dash artist, who showed his flying heels to the field in the 100 and 220-yard dashes, winning both with yards to spare in the fairly fast times of :10.8 in the century and :24.8 in the furlong, to amass 10 points or half of his team's total. He also ran a lap in the relay race. Other local point-gatherers were Tom Marshall, fourth in the shot put; Byrd, second in the 110-yard high hurdles; Wimberly, third in the high jump; Briggs fourth in the 880.

The form displayed by Simon in the two dash events, and the ease with which he won, has labeled him as a highly probable point winner in the state meet.

SEATTLE DEFEATS ANGELENOS IN 12TH

(By the Associated Press)

Seattle's Suds were bubbling along in their early-season coast league rise today, only one game behind op-place Los Angeles.

The Suds, who finished runner-up to Los Angeles in the pennant race last year, outlasted the Angels in a 12-inning endurance contest last night to win, 8 to 7.

Campbell's single off Ripper Collins' glove at first scoring Strange, was the blow that broke up the ball game and gave Seattle victory.

This season's early rising of the Suds recalled that last year they muddled along in the second division until a late spurt, due largely to Freddie Hutchinson's pitching, brought them to second place at the finish.

With Hutchinson gone from Seattle, the 1939 fate of his old club rests on such arms as Les Webber's, the winning hurler last night.

San Francisco remained in third place in the standings despite a 12-to-2 trouncing by the cellar-sunk Portland Beavers. Norbert's home run off Bill Thomas, with a man aboard, accounted for the Seals' tallies.

Hollywood clung to No. 4 status by beating San Diego 7 to 2 and handing Weldon, victorious in three previous appearances on the mound, his first defeat of the season.

Sacramento and Oakland split a double header, the Solons winning the opener 3 to 0 and then losing 2 to 1.

Seats pitched his second straight shutout in the first game.

POLICE SCHOOLS FOR OREGON SET

CORVALLIS, May 12.—(AP)—The Oregon Association of City Police decided yesterday to sponsor a series of police schools in various parts of the state, particularly to acquaint officers with methods of preparing evidence.

Federal bureau of investigation agents will be asked to assist inasmuch as the association desires to acquaint its men with the requirements of FBI laboratories.

Captain Dana Jewell, Portland; C. A. Mahoney, Eugene, and L. M. Ackerman, Klamath Falls, were named on the committee to arrange the clinics.

Salem was selected for the October meeting.

BILLY CONN AGAIN DEFEATS KRIEGER

Pittsburgh Mauler Hands Middleweight Champ Bad Beating.

By GAYLE TALBOT

NEW YORK, May 13.—(AP)—They're going to have to supply bigger game for Billy Conn, the Pittsburgh kid, after the terrific beating he dealt out to Solly Krieger, the N. B. A. middleweight king, in their 12-round bout at the garden last night.

He must have proved to nearly everybody's satisfaction by this time that he can knock the day lights out of all the 160-pounders they can throw in the ring at him. In his last four important fights, Billy has whipped Krieger twice and Fred Apostoli, champion in New York state, the same number of times. If they keep matching him with middleweights, the kid will be had up for assault and battery one of these night.

Krieger didn't belong in the same ring with Conn, even though Billy plainly wasn't at his best. He has been troubled with infected tonsils lately and was on his way back home today to have them out. He weighed 170¼ last night to Krieger's 166, but thinks he might sprout up to a solid 180 without the bad tonsils. If Conn ever does weigh that much, he is going to make a lot of heavyweights take to the woods.

Solly tried so hard it almost hurt to watch him. He lunged at his nimble rival round after round, swinging for dear life, but all he got for his most heroic efforts was a painful beating, a confused look on his face and a load of sarcasm from the 10,000 witnesses to his plight.

There wasn't a knockdown, though it was strange that Solly kept his feet under the barrage of left-rights that poured onto his granite jaw in the late rounds. By a conservative estimate, Conn captured nine chapters, Krieger gained one and a couple could have been called even.

All Conn lacks to make him a sensation is a little more weight and a knockout wallop.
