NEW THREE-PIECE PLAY SUIT FOR LITTLE FRESH AIR FANS

By CAROL DAY

Here's a practical, comfortable ensemble for active sports that every girl should have. It comprises a wrap of a play suit, a bolero to slip on when sunbathing is not in order, and an eye-shading bonnet. Any one or all of them will make your own child look even cuter than usual. Notice the pleated sleeves of the bolero, standing out like little wings. See how the play suit is brightened by rows of trim. Also, observe that the straps simply cannot slip off the shoulders, during busy moments at the sandpile or the beach.

Cincheon, calico, pique and percale are good materials for this little outdoor ensemble. It's extremely easy to make, for the pattern includes a detailed sew chart. Pattern $4.00 is detailed for sizes 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5 years. Size 2 requires 1 3/4 yards of 25-inch material for play suit; 1 yard for bolero; 2 1/2 yards for bonnet, and 1 yard ribbon for bow; 3/4 yard of bias or bias fold.

The new SPRING AND SUMMER PATTERN BOOK, 32 pages of attractive designs for every size and every occasion is now ready. Photographs show dresses made from these patterns being worn; a feature you will enjoy. Let the charming designs in this new book help you in your sewing. One pattern and the new Spring and Summer Pattern Book—25 cents. Pattern or book alone—15 cents. Send your order to the News-Review Pattern Department, Roseburg, Oregon.
