PRINCESS-STYLE HOUSEDRESS EASY TO WEAVE AND LAUNDER

Wouldn't this dress be pretty in plain green or violet chambray, with crisp white touches? Or in any printed calico or percale in floral patterns? Plaid gingham is another good idea for Pattern 8472. You can work around the house in it comfortably and speedily, because there's nothing tight or hampering about it anywhere. The waistline is conveniently adjustable, for it is finished with elastic bands in the back. It's as easy to work in as a completely sleeveless dress, but is more becoming because it covers the shoulders.

The button-front style is easy to put on, when you're rushed in the morning, and can be ironed quickly. Follow the step-by-step sew chart that comes with your pattern, and you'll finish this dress in no time. Pattern 8472 is designed for sizes 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44 and 46. Size 36 requires 42 yards of 36-inch material, 34 yards of contrast.

The new SPRING and SUMMER PATTERN BOOK, 32 pages of attractive designs for every size and every occasion is now ready. Photographs show dresses made from these patterns being worn; a feature you will enjoy. Let the charming designs in this new book help you in your sewing. One pattern and the new Spring and Summer Pattern Book—25 cents. Pattern or book alone—15 cents.

Send your order to the News-Review, Pattern Department, Roseburg, Oregon.
