A FEW years ago a bold man named Al Capone was riding high. He was the kingfish of all racketeers and with his (so the papers said) red hot and smoking guns blazed for him the title of public enemy number one. He was a bad man. In fact he was a bold bad man. In a queer and pervad sort of way he was the secret hero of many a small boy of the age to enjoy playing cops and robbers.

And then Capone was arrested.
Phooey! He was not hailed into the courts of law charged with mass murder or some other high crime. Now he was put on trial because he failed or did something else illegal to his income tax report. His feet of clay then dragged their useless way to "the rock" for a long stretch.

Sentenced for high crime, Capone might have become a big shot of criminal history—but sentenced for tax dodging he became public enemy number one. Whether by accident or deliberate intent —the U-men used the best possible technique for destroying whatever glamor may have accrued to Al Capone the gangster.

Recently this same technique has been taken out, dusted off and applied very effectively to two troublesome problems.

One was local to Kansas City where Boss Tom Pendergast had ruled with an iron hand and had headed a smooth-working political machine for 20 years.

He seemed immune from prosecution by local authorities but the federal men knew the answer.
Pendergast is now serving a sentence in federal prison for evasion of the income tax laws.

But perhaps the most troublesome problem in a big time was the delicate one presented by the German-American Bund and the activities of its head man, Fritz Kuhn.

The Bund development was difficult to handle because this is a country of freedom. Theoretically the Bund people were within their rights. But the rest of us feel that they were engaged in an activity that was contrary to the best interests of our country. This nation is made up of "foreigners" but we have never been troubled before with any serious internal foreign nationalism.

To have arrested Kuhn or any of the other leaders would have made them martyrs. To have imprisoned them would have made them political prisoners.

The method that was successful to the Capone case was again used and apparently with good results. Fritz Kuhn was arrested and charged, not with un-American activities, but with failing to pay state taxes—namely sales taxes upon uniforms sold to members.
This it was admitted pointed out that Fritz Kuhn had a nice little business for personal profit or at least that is the implication—out of his Bund activity.

In the eyes of the average American who pays his share of the taxes levied, no tax dodger is a hero—he is generally described as a specimen of some lower animal species.

struck or crossed track you'll just bet you'll be going over a natural set. You'll get along much better that way.

THE quins are world famous.
They traveled in Toronto to meet the king and queen in a special train. Their own private car had three bedrooms, each bedroom being equipped with a special brass bed welded to the floor so it couldn't slip. They were accompanied by a nurse. Their whole financial future is taken care of.

The king and queen of England are pretty well fixed. They have houses and castles. They have attendants of every conceivable kind. There is no material thing they might want that they can't have. So far as they are concerned, the word "depression" might as well be eliminated from the dictionary.

IT says, you see, to be a good showman. Remember that when you're tempted to be just a shrinking violet. Being a shrinking violet doesn't get you very far.

But if you're going to be a showman, be a GOOD showman. Poor shows don't pay.

BOY SCOUTS TO GET RICHFIELD'S HELP

Roseburg Richfield dealers today announced a week-end campaign, starting May 26, to aid local Boy Scouts in obtaining funds to be used for their summer camp expenses. Scouts are being furnished with cards which they will sign and present to automobile owners.
These cards, when turned in by nationals at Richfield stations Friday and Saturday in connection with purchase of gasoline, will entitle the scout whose signature appears on the card to a cash commission.
Cash prizes also will be awarded scouts with the most cards turned in.

DRAIN SCHOOL BUYS MOVIE PROJECTOR

DRAIN, May 25.—The Drain grade school recently purchased a movie picture projector to use along with regular school study for visual education. It is planned to give weekly pictures next year to supplement school study and add to the students' visual experience by a planned program of pictures for educational purposes.
The purchase of the machine was made possible by funds raised by student entertainments and assistance from the school board.

EXPORTS FROM U. S. IN APRIL DECLINE

WASHINGTON, May 25.—(AP)— United States merchandise exports dropped 11 per cent in April.
Merchandise imports, however, declined 2 per cent in April from the March total.
Exports still exceeded imports by $14,752,000, making a $217,122,000 export excess for the first four months of the year. In the comparable months last year, the export excess was $433,919,000.
A fall in cotton, tobacco, grain and other agricultural exports caused the decline of exports. In April to $239,947,000, which was 16 per cent less than in the same month last year. Imports totaled $186,195,000 in April, which was 16 per cent larger than in April, 1938.
For the first four months of the year exports amounted to $959, 600,000 and imports $712,558,000, compared with last year's $1,100, 758,000 exports and $666,847,000 imports.

QUEEN, IMPROVED, THANKFUL FOR GIFT

LONDON, May 25.—(AP)—Queen Mother Mary, recovering from bruises and a minor injury to one eye, today dispatched a letter of thanks for flowers brought by Albert Cooper, driver of the truck involved in the collision in which she was injured.
The 72-year-old driver took the small bouquet to her residence yesterday.
The letter expressed hope Cooper

EX-R.H.S. BOY TO BE MUSICIAN IN NAVY

Word has been received here that Glen Woodruff, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Woodruff of Halsey, has successfully passed the musical examination and has entered the U. S. naval school of music located at Washington, D. C.

Glen was sent east from Portland after first passing the physical and mental examinations and all necessary requirements. He will spend two years in the school there.
He graduated from the Roseburg high school in the class of 1935. He received all of his musical training from Snap Gilmore, being a member of his school band for six years. He was also a member of the Roseburg municipal band and played in the high school orchestra during his high school years here.
Only one other boy has been selected for this school from Oregon.
Clair Atwood, who was a member of the Jefferson high school band of Portland.

SALFORD, May 25.—(AP)—John P.
Allen of Corvallis, member of the state board of pharmacy, was appointed by Governor Sprague yesterday to the state board of health.
He will hold both appointments.
M. E. McKee, M.D., was reappointed to the board of pharmacy.

PROTECTION FOR FILBERTS SOUGHT

Modification of the reciprocal trade agreement with Turkey to provide more protection for Pacific northwest filbert growers was demanded by Representative Homer Angell of Oregon in a speech in the house.
Angell said protection of the market for the Oregon and Washington crop—which he said was becoming larger each year—was most important.

He asserted American filbert producers, as well as the producers of walnuts and other nut crops, "should not be placed on parity with India, Turkey, and other countries with low standards of living and low wages."

PLAN DOESN'T BEAR ON FACILITY HERE

The liberalization of policy in matters of quarters, subsistence, laundry, etc., announced by the veterans administration, will not affect employees at the Roseburg facility, contrary to a previous published report. Col. E. P. Tandy, manager of the facility here, announced today.
"In view of the fact that the group of personnel referred to in the statement from Washington is not provided with quarters at this station, no deductions for that purpose is possible," Col. Tandy said.
"All food handlers and attendants are under contract, which includes subsistence charges, and, therefore, are not relieved from these charges," he explains.

BIBLE SCHOOL TO BE HELD AT GLIDE

A daily vacation Bible school is announced by the Glide Baptist church. The date is still tentative, but is expected to be from May 23 to June 16.
The school will be directed by Miss Mary C. Ayers, a missionary worker under the American Dip-tist Women's Home Missionary society. Miss Ayers has spent the past year working with the Haddon Baptist church and before coming to Oregon worked in Idaho, Utah and Montana. Rev. Mr. Morton, pastor of the church, is asking that residents of the Glide district who will furnish cars to be used in transporting pupils to and from the school to contact him as soon as possible.
