Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Saunders

Mr. J. L. Saunders and Miss Margaret Anne Oederick were united in marriage Sunday, May 21, at a ceremony performed at high noon at the First Christian church in Roseburg by the Rev. Mr. Linden G. Leavitt. Following the impressive wedding, Mr. and Mrs. Saunders left on a trip to coast points.

At a beautiful and impressive ceremony, Miss Margaret Anne Oederick, daughter of the late W. A. Oederick and Mrs. Mollie Oederick, of this city, and J. L. Saunders, of Roseburg, son of Mrs. A. J. Saunders of Bend, were married at the First Christian church Sunday, May 21st, Rev. Mr. Linden G. Leavitt, pastor of the church, performed the rite ceremony at 12 o'clock noon in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends.

Beautiful spring blossoms were used to bank the altar and rostrum of the church. Proceeding the ceremony, R. M. Church sang, "Into the Dawn With You," accompanied by Miss Nelma Saylor, who played Tolbrun's Wedding Processional for the bride party to advance to the altar and played softly throughout the service. At the close of the ceremony, Miss Saylor played Mendelssohn's Reformation.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her uncle, was beautiful in a white chiffon and lace wedding gown, fashioned with short, puffed sleeves, fitted bodice and long, full skirt. Her finger-ring wedding veil was of double tulle and was fastened to her head by a tulle bow. She wore white and silver beaded sandals and carried a bouquet of calla lilies and mimosas. Her hair was styled in a white bow. Mrs. Clifford Parrott, as matron of honor, was attractive in a frock of pale pink lace. She carried a bouquet of roses and sweetpeas. Peyton Oederick, brother of the bride, acted as best man to the bridegroom and Paul McGowan and Wallace Downer were ushers.

Following the service, a reception was held at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Mollie Oederick. The rooms were lovely with spring flowers and the serving table was beautifully appointed and centered by a large, white decorated bride's cake.

Relatives and guests attending the reception included: Mrs. A. J. Saunders and Mr. and Mrs. Robert

P. T. A. ACTIVITIES IN DOUGLAS COUNTY

Rose

The last meeting of the Rose P. T. A. was held at seven-thirty o'clock, May 15.

During the business session the work of the present year was completed and partial plans laid for next year.

Since the association has a substantial sum in its treasury, the decision was made to set aside twenty-five dollars for a certain for the state. This project will be completed next year.

Following the business session the sixth grade presented a two-act play, "Old Pipes and the Dryad," and a song, "Swinging 'Neath the Old Apple Tree." Each member of the class was introduced by Mr. Hall.

Delicious refreshments were served at a beautifully appointed table to the sixth grade and, later, to all others present by Mrs. G. M. Kroll, Mrs. J. P. Mouschenbacher, Mrs. J. A. Harding, Mrs. F. A. Hurd and Mrs. C. R. Fromm.

While the school and the P. T. A. honor the sixth grade at this last meeting the program is given, not in the spirit of a graduation, but rather in that of a promotion from the elementary to the junior high school.

Fullerton

Fullerton P. T. A. sponsored its second annual silver tea at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Miceli on the Melrose road.

Friday afternoon from two-thirty to five o'clock, at which time about seventy called.

The gardens and pools of the Miceli home are especially beautiful and were greatly enjoyed during the tea hours by the guests.

Mrs. Clyde Carstens, Mrs. Hugh Whitlow, Mrs. Harris Booth, Mrs. Paul Helges and Mrs. Albert Miceli, received the guests.

The program included vocal selections by Mrs. Hugh Whitlow, accompanied by Mrs. Clyde Carstens, and by Virginia Chamberlain and William Henry Anderson, accompanied by Mrs. Howard Cook.

Alternating in pouring were Mrs. L. Kohlhaugen, Sr., Mrs. Foster Butler, Mrs. C. H. Hall, Miss Ruth Swinney, Mrs. E. A. Britton, Mrs. B. L. Irving and Mrs. H. Campbell. The tea table was beautifully appointed with a bouquet of pastel spring blossoms.

The refreshments were in charge of Mrs. Carl Whiner, Mrs. H. H. Turner, Mrs. Homer Strickling, Mrs. A. Matthews and Mrs. E. A. Britton, chairman. Assisting in the gardens were Mrs. B. L. Irving, Mrs. Clarence Rand, Mrs. P. O. Ackley, Mrs. H. B. Carter and Mrs. J. Gross.

Mr. and Mrs. Fisher entertained at dinner Wednesday evening.

MAKE THIS BOLERO ENSEMBLE TO TAKE ON YOUR VACATION

By CAROL DAY

Here's the type of smart jacket ensemble that you need more than any other thing for spring and summer wear. Make yours according to the design in Pattern 8496 and revel in its charm and becomingness.

The dress by itself is a sweet thing, with softly bloused bodice that will look particularly well made up in contrast, as sketched. The wide-sleeved bolero has flattering revers, trimmed like the skirt, with buttons—a new and attractive note.

Use silk print, flat crepe, or shirers for this frock, and wear your favorite brooch, a chapeau or a ray bunch of flowers, at the plain V-neckline. A hot weather version will be pretty to lines or tulle.

Pattern 8496 is designed for sizes 12-14, 16-18 and 20. Size 14 requires 3 1/2 yds. of 39-inch material for the bolero and skirt; 1 1/2 yds. for the waist portion; 1 1/2 yds. to line bolero.

The new SPRING AND SUMMER PATTERN BOOK, 22 pages of attractive designs for every size and every occasion is now ready. Photographs show dresses made from these patterns being worn; a feature you will enjoy. Let the charming designs in this new book help you in your sewing. One pattern and the new Spring and Summer Pattern Book—25 cents. Pattern or book alone—15 cents.
