COLORADO PICKET BAN KNOCKED OUT

DENVER, May 30.—(AP)—The Colorado supreme court declared unconstitutional today a 34-year-old state anti-picketing law long opposed by organized labor.

The tribunal asserted the statute violated free speech guarantees of the federal constitution.

In addition, the court ruled, the prohibition of "peaceful picketing" was an invasion of "state and federal due-process-of-law clauses."

The test came on appeal by the state of acquittal of George Harris, who picketed a Denver mortuary on behalf of the building trades council.

CUBA TURNS BACK JEWISH REFUGEES

Haven for 1,000 Unwanted People From Germany Creates Problem.

WASHINGTON, May 30.—(AP)—While three trans-Atlantic ships sought today to discharge more than 1,000 unwanted German refugees at Caribbean ports, word reached here the inter-governmental committee for refugees in London had requested the relief to exercise stricter control over their departure.

The committee asked that officials not to let refugees leave unless it was certain they would be permitted to land in the country of destination.

From New York came word representatives of Jewish organizations expected to fly to Cuba to confer with President Laredo Bri about 927 refugees aboard the liner San Luis at Havana.

The ship arrived Saturday with 943 refugees. According to information reaching the state department, only 16 of them have the necessary papers with which to land.

American representatives hoped to induce Cuban authorities to let the refugees land in Cuba and then go to the Isle of Pines to make their homes.

Meanwhile, the British liner Gedania was en route from Havana to Panama and Chile hoping to disembark 72 refugees whom the Cuban authorities would not permit to land after 48 were disembarked.

The French liner Plandrie was en route to Vera Cruz, Mexico, with 150 refugees after having landed 32 in Havana.

The refugees who were disembarked in Cuba had not only the necessary permits but also $500 each to deposit with the Cuban
