They were married June 4, 1889 in Springfield, Ohio, and 25 years later their only daughter was married in the same place. Mrs. Paul wore a pink merino wedding dress fashioned with a floor length skirt which fell in soft folds over a panel embroidered in seed pearls. A tight basque, embroidered in seed pearls with long sleeves, was complimented with a floor length veil of white and a spray of orange blossoms. She carried a fan tipped with plume. Mr. Paul wore the conventional black Prince Albert suit, a popular style with the men in 1889.

The couple remained in Springfield until 1927 when they moved west, following their children who had moved to Oregon earlier.

The families moved to Roseburg in 1927 and Mr. and Mrs. Hiney and son chose Portland as their home later.

Later in the afternoon a picnic lunch was enjoyed by Marjorie Stevens, Betty Ernst, Frances Moore, Virginia Mills, Dartha Brooks, Barbara Hutchings, Jean Ashworth, Marilyn Preston and the two guardians, Elaine Brown and Edna Brown.

Roseburg Camp Fire guardians and the local Camp Fire council are making extensive plans for the Camp Fire camp which will be held July 16 to 30 at the Wolf Creek CCC camp. The buildings which have been vacated for some time offer fine facilities for the annual Camp Fire girls summer outing. Miss Dorothy Dale Jackson will serve as camp director.

The local council, in making a short review of Camp Fire activities, repeated the laws of the camp fire, seek beauty, give service, pursue knowledge, be trustworthy, glorify work, hold on to health and be happy.

They explained that those who planned the program of the camp fire girl, when it was originated, must have heeded the young girl and her zest for life, the need to dance and laugh and sing. These traits are the keynote for the Camp Fire program.

Finding happiness in working together in their group meetings and at camp, dramatics, hand craft, nature study, camping, hiking, archery, swimming, service to others, help at home, all have this motivation in common. Through their work and happiness at work it may be explained that the Camp Fire girl follows her law of the Camp Fire.
