There is a very happy C.C. boy down in Virginia. He is happy because the king of England engaged him in conversation and terminated that pleasant experience for the boy by shaking hands with him. (Current news reels show two fingers on the king's right hand bound with adhesive tape—too much hand shaking). It was one of those tricks of fate—like winning on a lottery ticket. But it is a good guess right now that the boy would not trade his experience of shaking hands with the king of England for the winnings on a high up sweepstake ticket.

The visit of the British royalty is ended. For us it served a very worthwhile purpose. It relieved the headlines—relieving the monkey business of the European diplomats, who whip up war scars, to secondary positions.
As a matter of fact the trip was something of a psychological triumphant. The people of England have had the war jitters for months on end. Due to the excellence of our news reporting, the able showmanship of the radio commentators, and the skill of the headline writers who, when they have to, can make a headline over the timest paragraph that reads like impending doom, the people of this country have also been nervous and fearful of war. The nonchalance with which the king and queen of England packed up and voyaged across the Atlantic to visit their colonies and to pay respects to their good friends in the United States, was enough to calm people down on both sides of the Atlantic.

Speaking of calm, evidently many people avoid crowds and do not like the hurly burly of a jam-for Saturday when the king and queen visited the great New York World's fair the attendance was only 150,000. Preparations had been made to handle 700,000 or more. In fact the attendance Saturday was less than for previous Saturdays. On the other hand Sundays, when it was raining, the crowds were larger than on previous sunny Sundays. The conclusion is that vast numbers of New Yorkers concluded that the place would be packed when the royalty visited and therefore decided to drive up the Hudson instead. Then when it appeared to be a rainy Sunday they calculated that would be a good time to see the fair because there would be a small crowd.

The two great fairs, one in New York, the other on Treasure Island in San Francisco, have not done as well as it was anticipated they would. In fact there has been a shake-up in the management of the San Francisco exposition and a new man—a showman and promoter of baseball and racetrack events is now the headman.

The San Francisco fair thus far has averaged less than half the daily "gate" anticipated.
When the fair opened February 18, officials estimated total attendance for the 288-day event would be 20,000,000—an average of slightly more than 69,000 a day.

For the 111 days ended Thursday night, paid admissions totaled 3,587,881—an average of 32, 568 daily.

Exposition officials have maintained that the advent of the fourth season would make up the deficit. If the 20,000,000 goal is reached, a daily average of 92,695 for the remaining 177 days will be necessary.

to make them like it.)

WIVES of Washington and Oregon senators and representatives who met the British king and queen at the garden party at the British embassy shook hands instead of curtsying.

Official Washington, where such things are regarded as important, had been swept by quite a tempest over the supposedly immense issue of whether to curtsey in the British manner or merely to shake hands in the American manner.)

This writer, who is far from an authority on such matters but, like most Americans, has personal opinions on nearly every subject under the sun, has a notion that if one were meeting their majesties in England, where curtsying is the accepted thing, it would be both correct and courteous to curtsey.

But, in AMERICA, where a hand-shake and a word of greeting are the accepted thing, it is better to shake hands. On this side of the water, a curtsy savors of affectation, and affectation is never admirable.

The old rule: "When in Rome, do as the Romans do" is a pretty good rule.

Daily Devotions

DR. CHARLES A. EDWARDS

Einstein and Freedom
"Being a lover of freedom, when the revolution came in Germany, I looked to the universities to defend it, knowing that they always boasted of their devotion to the cause of truth; but they were silent. Then I turned to the great editors of the newspapers whose flaming editorials in days gone by had proclaimed their love of freedom; but they, like the universities, were silenced in a few short weeks.
Then I looked to the individual writers, who, as literary guides of Germany, had written much and often concerning the place of freedom in modern life; but they too were mute. Only the church stood squarely across the path of Hitler's campaign for suppressing truth. I had never had any great interest in the church before, but now I feel a great affection and admiration because the church alone has stood for intellectual truth and moral freedom. I am forced to confess that what I once despised I now praise unreservedly."
ALBERT EINSTEIN.

Financier—By Gum!
DURHAM, N. C.—When a bright-faced youngster dropped a nickel into a storm sewer, Traffic Sergeant W. W. Scott gave the child another nickel.

The boy quickly bought a package of chewing gum and then with a pole and a wad of gum retrieved his original coin.

Embarrassing Moment

DULUTH, Minn.—The collective face of St. Louis county's taxing body was red today. For 25 years it taxed a section of timber land in the La La Croix district. The trouble was that the land actually was in Canada. Three companies are seeking a refund of $4,116.53 in taxes—plus interest.

Close Call

NEBRASKA CITY, Neb.—Bertie Garrett, 19, of Nebraska City, is a big and strong one.
He was pinned against a broken steering rod when two tractors overtook him, and the belt buckle kept the rod from piercing his abdomen before neighbors freed him.

OAKS CLIMB FROM SEVENTH TO FOURTH

Los Angeles Retains Its League Lead, Portland
Again in Cellar.

(By the Associated Press) Oakland's up-and-coming baseball club, in the first division of the Pacific coast league for the first time in a couple of years, rosted today after a strenuous two weeks in which it climbed from seventh place to fourth in the standings.
The Oaks, thanks to the batwork of Manager Vergez, ran their winning streak to five straight at San Diego yesterday, beating the Padres, 4 to 2, in the 10th inning first game of a doubleheader, but lost the second contest, 3 to 5.
Oakland won the nine-game series, 6 games to 3.

Los Angeles wound up the week two and a half games in the lead after beating Hollywood, 4 games to 3.

The clubs split their Sunday doubleheader at Los Angeles, Hollywood taking the opener, 6 to 4, but dropped the nightcap, 3-5. He injured a leg and was relieved in the seventh by Julio Bonetti.

San Francisco's Seals couldn't catch up with the second-place Seattle Rainiers, though they won the series, 4 games to 2.

Seattle took both ends of yesterday's twin bill at San Francisco, 5 to 1 and 3 to 2, on timely hitting by Archie and Vainie. Archie hit a homer with the bases loaded in the eighth inning of the opener, and in the nightcap Vainie drove in two runs with a double plus two singles in his four turns at the plate.

Sacramento's Senators also won their doubleheader, sending Portland's Beavers back into the cellar with a twin lining at Sacramento, 6 to 4 and 1 to 0. For two weeks now the teams have traded places in the basement with virtually every game. Sacramento won the week's series, 4 games to 2.

Seats blanked Portland until the ninth inning in the first game, Hawkins slammed out a home run with two on. In the nightcap, Garibaldi scored the only run with a home run in the second off Ad Liska.

This week Sacramento meets Oakland at the Oaks' Los Angeles goes to Seattle, San Francisco plays at Portland and Hollywood enters tains San Diego.

FRANK TROEH TAKES TRAPSHOOT HONORS

PORTLAND, Ore., June 12.— (AP)—Frank M. Troeh, widely known trapshooter, carted away all the hardware in the Oregon trap-shoot tournament yesterday.

The veteran won his 17th state singles title, the handicap and the doubles. A score of 198 went up for him in the 200-target singles, 95 in the handicap and 49 out of 50 soring targets in the doubles.
Archie Parrott, Portland, E. N.
Hardenbrook, Klamath Falls, and George Jantzer, Medford, all shared second in the singles with scores of 197.

In the final shootoff of the Oregonian telegraphic trapshoot championship, a five-man Portland team beat out Salem with an aggregate of 486 to 481. Following in order were Tillamook, Clatsop, Medford, Eugene, Heppner, Lebanon, Bend, Hillsboro, Siuslaw, La Grande.

Shaverly Jean Nussom, Clatskanie, won the women's 16-yard singles with a 182 total.

OAKLAND TOWNIES DOWN JR. LEGION

Atrocious Fielding Costs Local Lads First Game
in New Uniforms.

Ragged fielding cost the Umpqua post American Legion Juniors a baseball game Sunday afternoon, the Oakland Townies taking a contest at Finlay field by a score of 14 to 3. If the old adage that it had luck for a team to win the first game played in new uniforms holds true, the Roseburg team should have a successful season, for the Juniors were a long way from winning yesterday's game.

The opening innings furnished close and exciting action, despite numerous errors, but in the second, inning Oakland went out in front with a five-run spree as the Juniors' defense fell apart.

Applegate, the Roseburg pitcher, despite spells of wildness, had the game well under control, and limited the adult players from Oakland to two hits. The visitors unable to hit safely for six innings, but made four runs on errors.

Two Keymen Absent
The Juniors were playing without the services of Sanders and Laurance, who made up the regular keystone combination, and their absence was keenly felt.

Duane Harbert, who pitched last season for the Eugene Juniors, and who is to play this season with the Roseburg team, took over the pitching duties in the eighth inning.

The Roseburg team shows promise of a very strong organization, in the event the fielding improves as it should with practice. Coach Jim Watts, Roseburg high school athletic mentor, is taking over the coaching duties and it is believed that the local team will rapidly round into shape under his supervision.
