MISS JEAN BANNING AND CLARENCE BATES MARRY AT BEAUTIFUL CEREMONY

By BETTY SHOEMAKER

Miss Jean Banning, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claude E. Banning, of this city, and Clarence Bates, son of Mrs. Marjorie Bates, of Cottage Grove, were married Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, June 11, at the First Presbyterian church.

The ceremony was attended by a large group of friends and relatives of the couple and the single ring service was read by Rev. Morris H. Roach, pastor of the church.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was gowned in a wedding dress of white taffeta. The leg o'mutton sleeves were gathered tight at the wrist and the high necked bodice was complimented by a full skirt, which fell in deep folds to the floor with a slight train. Her white, finger tip veil was caught in place by a wreath of lilies of the valley and orange blossoms which was 50 years old. The wreath had been worn June 11, 1889 by Mrs. Andrews, grandmother of Miss Claire Tison. Miss Banning carried a white Bible and a small spray of cream rosebuds and lilies of the valley knotted on white ribbon.

Miss Mary Ellen Darby attended the bride as maid of honor. She chose a gown of green marquesette fashioned with a floor length hoop skirt and a short, ruffled, bolero jacket. She wore a large picture hat of lavender with long ribbons of pastel shades. Her old fashioned bouquet was of pink snapdragons and yellow summer flowers.

Her two bridesmaids, Miss Martha Boentgen, of Astoria, and Miss Fay Bossen, of Elkton, cousin of the bride, wore floor length dresses of yellow marquesette with full skirts and puff sleeves and matching halos about their heads. They carried old fashioned bouquets of summer blooms in pastel colors.

Little Miss Karen Kronke, daughter of Mr. and Mr. A. Kronke, of this city, acted as flower girl. She wore a floorlength dress of green and white crinkled organdy. An old fashioned bonnet matching her gown, was caught in place under her chin with a green ribbon.

Donald MacDonald, of Eugene, attended the bridegroom as best man and Lawrence Yarnes, of West Linn and Richard Miller, of Eugene, were ushers.

The church was decorated by Mr. and Mrs. Glen Cox with large bouquets of early summer flowers and preceding the ceremony Miss Tison sang "Because" and "All For You," accompanied by Mrs. Homer Grow at the organ. The bridal party entered the church to "Lohengrin's Wedding March" by Wagner and Mrs. Grow played softly during the entire ceremony. The couple and their attendants retired from the church to Mendelssohn's Recessional.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents on Flint street. The guests were welcomed by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Banning, of Portland, brother and sister-in-law of the bride. The bridal party and the parents of the couple received the guests in the Banning garden.

The serving tables were arranged under a canopy with Miss Bettijane Dixon and Miss Kathryn Busenbark presiding at the punch bowls. The bride cut the first piece of the three-tiered wedding cake which was topped by a miniature house and bride and groom, after which Mrs. Robert Nelson cut the cake. Miss Helen Wetherall assisted in the gift room and Miss Eugenia Virden was in charge of the guest book.

Assisting with the serving and about the garden were Miss Annabelle Berg, Miss Adah Marie Ruhl, Miss Beverly Winston, Mrs. A. J. Young and Mrs. H. C. Darby. The bride's bouquet was caught by Miss Busenbark.

For her going-away outfit Mrs. Bates chose a tailored navy blue suit with a pink blouse, a blue straw hat with a pink veil and a lighter blue topcoat. She wore a corsage of gardenias.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Otto, Mrs. Louis Allen, Mary E. Witcher, Mrs. Mabel Houck, Helen Allen, Gladys Miller, Mr. Miller, Dixie Lee Miller, all of Eugene; Mr. and Mrs. Bennie DuFresne, Oroville; Mrs. Jean DuFresne, Oroville, Cal.; Miss Iris Haines, Mr. and Mrs. Bossen, of Elkton; Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Marsh, Lookingglass; Mr. and Mrs. Knaffle Haynes, Cottage Grove; Mr. and Mrs. Irving Ellis, The Dalles; Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Yarnes, West Linn; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Banning, Miss Virginia Ness, Anthony J. Schmid, all of Portland, and R. R. Banning, of Los Angeles, Cal., grandfather of the bride.

Mrs. Bates was graduated from Roseburg senior high school and attended Behnke-Walker Business college in Portland and during the last year the University of Oregon at Eugene. She is a member of the Roseburg chapter of Jobs' Daughter, Bethel No. 8. Mr. Bates attended Cornish school in Seattle and the University of Oregon.

The couple spent the last week vacationing at coast points and will make their home in Eugene where Mr. Bates is employed in the sculpturing division of the art department on the University of Oregon campus.
