SCAVENGER HUNT IS ENJOYABLE AFFAIR

MYRTLE CREEK June 21.—Last Friday evening a jolly party of Christian Endeavorers and a few guests met at the church for a scavenger hunt.

Groups were formed and lists of hard-to-find things were given each group. A hurried but thorough search of the whole village was made as the group returning first with a complete list was to receive a grand prize. Hubert Williams and his group were the lucky hunters. David Adamson and party came in a close second. Mrs. Gray, a visitor, received consolation.

Mr. and Mrs. Barnes returned with a varied assortment of live birds which excited much interest. After the hunt all the crowd went home with Mr. and Mrs. Barnes and played games after which refreshments were served.

Those enjoying the party were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. David Adamson, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Williams and Mr. Williams' cousin, Mrs. J. G. Gray. Winthrop, Wash. Edbert and Cecil Naas, Mrs. Lucille Bryant, Carmen Dean, Bradford and Hope Vactor, Gaylord and Wanda Skinner, Dorothy Trulove, Stanley Whitney, Roger Cooper.
