WED FORTY YEARS

MR. AND MRS. A. J. GEDDES

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Geddes, prominent Roseburg residents, who celebrated their fortieth wedding anniversary at a charming reception at their home on North Jackson street Tuesday evening, June 18th, which was sponsored by the Methodist Episcopal Ladies Aid society and friends of the church. One hundred and twenty-five called during the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Geddes, who for many years have been prominent Roseburg residents, celebrated their fortieth wedding anniversary at a very lovely reception given by the Methodist Episcopal Ladies Aid society and friends of the church Tuesday evening, June 20th, at the Geddes home on North Jackson street. The date also marked the twenty-seventh anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Geddes' moving to Roseburg to make their home, they having arrived in this city on June 20, 1912.

The rooms were beautifully decorated with huge bouquets of lilies, delphiniums, caryophylls and sweetpeas. The buffet table, covered by an exquisite lace cloth, was replete with a mixed bouquet of spring blossoms and lighted pastel tapers. Mrs. S. Raynor Smith had charge of arrangements for the reception. Mrs. F. H. Churchill and Mrs. H. C. Darby were joint chairmen of refreshments and were assisted by Mrs. J. E. McClintock, Mrs. L. R. Riddle and Mrs. George Churchill.

Mr. and Mrs. Geddes' three daughters and daughter-in-law, Mrs. Harrie Booth, Mrs. Stewart Cooper and Mrs. Harold Ingram, and Mrs. Paul Geddes, assisted about the rooms.

On behalf of the Methodist Episcopal church members, Rev. S. Raynor Smith presented a very beautiful gift to Mr. and Mrs. Geddes. Both Mr. and Mrs. Geddes have been active members of the Methodist Episcopal church during their twenty-seven years of residence in Roseburg. Mrs. Geddes is superintendent of the Sunday school and he is treasurer of the Sunday school.

They are both members of the choir and are both on the official board of the church.

Mr. Geddes was in business with J. E. McClintock in the Commercial Abstract office and then during the World War acted as a telegrapher for the Southern Pacific company. For years both Mr. and Mrs. Geddes have been active in civic organizations and the schools of this city, by serving on the school board and taking part in their various clubs.

Mr. and Mrs. Geddes are the parents of eight children: Gerald, of San Diego, Calif.; Clair, of Seattle, Calif.; Mrs. Leslie J. Holt, of San Diego; Miss Jean Geddes, of Lake Tahoe, Calif.; and Mrs. Harrie W. Booth, Mrs. Stewart Cooper and Attorney Paul Geddes, all of Roseburg.
