

Louis Whips Galento to Retain Crown

BATTLE HALTED BY REFEREE IN FOURTH

Tony Game Under Terrific Punishment, Once Sends Champ to Canvas.

By GAYLE TALBOT
NEW YORK, June 28 (AP)—The roof finally fell in on Tony Galento last night and nearly killed him, but before it happened the hold New Jersey barkeep gave a great fight crowd in Yankee stadium a succession of thrills it will not soon forget.

Yes, Champion Joe Louis butchered the poor galoot, sent him falling to his knees bleeding and helpless so that Referee Arthur Donovan had to stop it in 2:29 of the fourth round. But Tony gave an account of himself that will enshrine him in the minds of those who saw.

Tony never took a backward step. In the third round, when his face already was cut to ribbons and the heart would long since have been beaten out of a less brave fighter, he swung a left to Louis' jaw that sent the champion bouncing on the canvas.

In the opening minutes when the fight was young he rocked the big, bronze champion on his heels with another terrific left.

Louis, who had knocked out his three previous challengers in less than a round each, said it was the toughest fight he ever had. In the terrible last round, when Galento was defenseless, Joe said he had to hit him a dozen times as hard as he ever hit a man before Tony finally fell into the referee's arms, sprawling for the ropes in a desperate effort to keep his feet.

Tony May Fight Nova

Such a great stand did Galento make that he probably will be matched against Lou Nova, recent conqueror of Max Baer, in September. Through battered puffed lips Tony begged for another chance at Louis, but he won't get that. Nova, at the ringside after the battle, said nothing would suit him better than a few shots at Tony, except a chance at the champion.

Those who had posted money at 8 to 1 on Louis must have come near swallowing their gullets both times Galento landed on Joe's kniskers. Each time all that saved the champion from serious difficulties was Tony's inability to follow up fast. Tony simply couldn't shove his 253 pounds forward and strike again before Louis recovered.

Louis treated his stubby rival with a world of respect after he got clipped the first time. He claimed afterward that it was his inability to reach Tony's crouching style. He didn't really open up until a series of terrific left hooks had placed Galento at his mercy.

Tony Badly Punished

Galento returned to his corner with a cut upper lip at the end of the first round. They had only been at it a few seconds of the second round when Louis whipped over a left to Tony's jaw that spun him to the floor for a two-count. For the remainder of the chapter Joe handed his daunt opponent a bad beating, but couldn't put him down again.

This was Tony's knockdown of his tormentor in the third round such an electrifying thrill for the crowd of nearly 35,000 Tony fought in close brouhaha a quick right and then a left squarely to the champion's jaw. Joe went down on his pants like he had been clubbed, but quickly braced himself with his hand on the floor and was up again as the timekeeper tolled two. Tony had him going the rest of the round.

Louis started the fourth dancing around and keeping out of Tony's reach, watching for the big chance. Suddenly it came. Two left hooks cracked on Galento's jaw like sumpor lightning, and he swayed like a tilted barrel but didn't go down in a breath Louis was on him, pounding sledge-hammer blows into Tony's face. Within 10 seconds he made Galento a horrible sight. It was all over.

and I still want another shot at that Louis. I gave the fans a show tonight, didn't I? And the next time I won't toss away my chances. I'll flatten him."

YANKEES SET NEW HOME RUN MARK

Thirteen Four-Base Swats Posted in Doubleheader With Athletics.

By JYDSON BAILEY
(Associated Press Sports Writer.)

If anyone wishes to make something of it, the New York Yankees still are the slugging Samsons of baseball.

Yesterday the world champions swamped the Philadelphia Athletics under a spray of 13 homers to sweep a doubleheader, 23-2 and 10-0, and break the existing major league records for homers both in one game and in two consecutive games.

Nine of the circuit clubs were divided evenly between Dahlgren, Gordon and DiMaggio with Selkirk, Dickey, Henrich and Cossitt cutting in for one each.

The eight blows the Bronx bombers lunched in the first game were the most important because they broke a mark established by Detroit in the original National league in 1886 and tied just five times since then. These were a part of the 27 hits the champions collected. Besides setting a new home run record the Yankees also set an American league standard for total bases with 53, three more than the 1934 Yankees put together in a single contest.

All the other American league clubs were idle. The Cincinnati Reds, National league pace setters, also were rained out of their scheduled night game with the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Giants Rise to 2nd Place

The New York Giants took advantage of this situation to move into second place in the National league with a 7-1 victory over the Philadelphia Phillies while the St. Louis Cardinals were absorbing an 8-1 thumping from the Chicago Cubs.

The Giants' victory was their fifth straight and 15th in the last 17 games.

The conquest of the Cardinals was to have been a chore for Dizzy Dean in his first appearance in Slocum's park at St. Louis since the deal that sent him to Chicago over a year ago. But his old rule knocked him out of the box in the first inning and only a garrison finish spared the Cubs their decision.

The Brooklyn Dodgers and Boston Red Sox finally got down to business after a 23-inning standoff Tuesday and the Dodgers triumphed 6-1.

ANGELENOS BOOST COAST LEAGUE LEAD

Thomas Blanks Hollywood as 2nd Place Seattle Loses to Sactos.

(By the Associated Press)

Air-tight pitching by a couple of good right-handers enabled the Los Angeles Angels to step up a full game at the top of the Pacific coast baseball league last night.

Thomas of Los Angeles pitched four-hit ball at Hollywood as he blanked the sixth-place Stars, 7 to 0, and Schmidt gave up only six hits as Sacramento upset the second-place Seattle Rainiers at Sacramento, 12 to 1.

Los Angeles, now in the lead by a game and a half, scored four runs in the fifth and kept up the attack on Joe Bittner until he was relieved in the ninth by Crandall. The Angels got 12 hits off Bittner and Crandall.

Branch Rickey, general manager of the St. Louis Cardinals, was in the stands at Sacramento to see the Cardinal chain club which is trailing in the coast league cellar. Sacramento played an inspired game, pushing over four runs in each of the sixth and seventh as the Solons collected 12 hits off three Rainier twirlers. Outfielder Marshall hit two home runs.

San Francisco's third-place Seals blasted 18 hits off three Oakland pitchers to rout the Oaks, 10 to 5, at San Francisco.

The Seals, harassed by the injury jinx the past few weeks, signed Harlan Pool, veteran major and minor league catcher and outfielder. He played five innings last night, getting two singles in three turns at the plate.

In yesterday's only day game, Portland's Beavers defeated San Diego, 4 to 3, at San Diego. Thomas pitched smooth ball for Portland until the eighth, when San Diego bunched three hits for two runs.

Oakland Visitor Here—Charles W. Smith, of Oakland, was in town Wednesday attending to business.

TONY, BADLY PUNISHED, WANTS ANOTHER CHANCE

ORANGE, N. J., June 29 (AP)—The first thing Tony Galento did in his home town was to visit his doctor, who was still at his bedside to collect the day's receipts.

Then he went home, and when a few friends dropped in some minutes later, they found Tony, his face striped with bandages, kneeling in front of a boy table, counting the "baks." There was $255—"a good day's business," the pudgy ponder explained, "and it's all because my pals turned out while I was fighting that Louis."

He counted and recounted the money and finally had Herman Taylor, Philadelphia promoter, count it again to see he hadn't made a mistake.

Tony Badly Slashed

He did it all after absorbing a beating such as has sent some of Louis' previous challengers to hospitals.

"It's amazing," said Dr. Max E. Stern, Newark physician at whose office Tony stopped on his way back from his "date" with the champion. "He was cut very bad."

"The worst cuts," the physician added, "were those running along the right side of his nose, from just under the eye almost to the edge of the mouth; another along his lower lip, and a third at the top of his left eyelid."

The one along Tony's nose, the physician explained, had slashed almost all the way through to the inside of his mouth. The one on the lower lip actually did slice right through.

"Yeah," shouted Tony, "yeah!"
