YOUNG SISTERS ARE PRESENTED IN CHARMING RECITAL MONDAY

On last Monday evening, a very lovely piano recital was given by Virginia and Faith Young, talented daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Young. The recital was given at the home of their teacher, Miss Gladys Strong, who has been their instructor since they began their music study as children.

The very interesting program was shared equally by the two girls. The numbers were well chosen and were representative of different types and periods of musical literature which gave variety. Their playing was mature, having not only brilliant technique but expressive and artistic style. Both the earlier classics and the modern compositions were played with understanding and interesting interpretation.

Miss Faith Young has completed her junior year in the Roseburg high school. She has been interested in musical activities throughout her public school life.

Miss Virginia Young was graduated from Roseburg high school with the class of '39. She plans to continue her music study at college next year. She has received a scholarship for music at Linfield college.

A large group of friends attended the recital and were very appreciative of the delightful program given. Roy Young and Mrs. Charles Brand assisted Miss Strong in receiving the guests. Misses Bette Owen, Carolyn Allen, Carolyn Gordon, Jane Clarke, Anita Young, Helen Cooney and Mrs. Charles Brand assisted in serving refreshments at the close of the program.

CHARMING PIANO RECITAL GIVEN FRIDAY EVENING

On Friday evening a very delightful piano recital was given by Barbara Young, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Young of Oakland and Anita Young, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Young of Roseburg. The program was given at the home of Miss Gladys Strong, their teacher. The recital was unusual in being presented by two such youthful students. Miss Barbara Young has just completed the eighth grade in the Oakland public schools and Miss Anita Young has completed the ninth grade in Roseburg junior high. Their playing showed real musical talent as well as excellent preparation. It was interesting with good style and expressing the mood of the various compositions. These young students were versatile, playing numbers of contrasting types equally well.

A most appreciative group of friends enjoyed the program. Mrs. E. G. Young and Mrs. Roy Young assisted Miss Strong in receiving the guests. Mrs. Charles Brand, Faith and Virginia Young, Phyllis Nelson and Helen Cooney assisted in serving.
