ham, second vice-president; Mrs. Gordon Stewart, secretary; Mrs. Jack Chapman, treasurer; Mrs. Adrian Bowen, secretary; and Mrs. M. P. Dunn and Miss Ruth Kershner, directors.

At the close of the installation ceremony, Miss Vera McLaughlin, new president, gave a short talk and presented a lovely gift to Mrs. Walter Fisher, club advisor, who was asked to serve as advisor again during the coming year.

REBEKAH LODGE ENTERTAINS ODD FELLOWS TUESDAY

Roseburg Rebekah lodge No. 41 met Tuesday evening at the L.O.O.F. hall with Winnie Hawn, noble grand, presiding. Plans were made for the joint installation of new officers of the Rebekah lodge and the Odd Fellows lodge to be held at the L.O.O.F. hall at eight o'clock the evening of July 11th.

District deputy grand master, Oliver Plummer, and district deputy grand president, Ruth Plummer, will preside over the installation ceremonies. Velma Herman, Carmen Clark and Evelyn Fredrickson will have charge of the decorations and the refreshment committee will include Effie Schwan, chairman, Ethel Bailey, Emily Judd, Christine Mirelli, Anna Goulden, Lona Webb, Ellen Gordon and Mabel Schindler.

The door prize for the evening was won by Merle Henry.

The Odd Fellows were guests of the Rebekahs for the social hour, at which time Maynard Pickens, Alice Goff and Ethel Busenbark presented the following program: tap dance by Georgene Shanklin, accompanied by Grace Crook; reading by June Masters; accordion solo by May Taylor; trumpet solo by Dorothy Nelson, accompanied by Margaret Hinkley; pantomime, "From Eve on Down," by Velma Herman, Ruth Plummer, Myrtle Spangh, Lillian Nelson, Lydia Roadman and Emma Taylor.

Refreshments were served at the close of the social hour in the banquet room, at tables artistically decorated with bouquets of summer flowers. Covers were placed for a hundred. Mrs. Susie Jackson and Mrs. Tillie Johnson were joint chairmen of the refreshments. Group singing, led by Fred A. Goff and Evelyn Fredrickson, was enjoyed.

MRS. L. L. WIMBERLY ENTERTAINS AT CHARMING BRIDGE LUNCHEON THURSDAY

In compliment to Mrs. Harold Ingram, of Red Bluff, Calif., who is here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Geddes, and other relatives, a charming one o'clock bridge luncheon was given by Mrs. L. L. Wimberly at her home, "Pine Ridge," Thursday afternoon. Beautiful bouquets of mixed summer flowers were attractively arranged about the rooms. The luncheon was served at small tables on the veranda and were covered by gaily-colored cloths and colorful pottery. Mrs. Leslie C. Cummings assisted the hostess in serving.

Contract bridge was enjoyed during the pleasant afternoon hours with Mrs. Porter winning the high score prize.

Mrs. Ingram and two children, Penelope and Frank Leslie, have been spending the past two weeks here at the A. J. Geddes home and visiting the former's two sisters and brother, Mrs. Harrie Booth, Mrs. Stewart Cooper and Attorney Paul Geddes. Mrs. Ingram was formerly Miss Dorothy Geddes of this city. Her husband, who is manager of the Montgomery Ward store at Red Bluff, plans to come to Roseburg this week-end to visit his mother, Mrs. Bessie Ingram, and to take his family back to California.

MRS. DANIEL KEOHANE ENTERTAINS NEW BRIDGE CLUB ON WEDNESDAY

A new bridge club was organized at a charming one-thirty o'clock dessert-luncheon given by Mrs. Daniel Keohane at her attractive home on Overlook, Wednesday afternoon. Summer flowers lent a colorful note to the rooms.

Covers were placed for Mrs. Marshall Pengra, Mrs. A. D. Parr, Mrs. E. R. Jacobs, Mrs. J. K. Watts, Mrs. B. P. Meyers, Mrs. Owen Walker, Mrs. Leon Yearwood and Mrs. Keohane, hostess.

Contract bridge was enjoyed during the afternoon with Mrs. Parr winning the high score.

BIBLE CLASS WILL NOT MEET MONDAY

There will be no meeting of Dr. R. L. Dunn's non-denominational Bible study class next Monday evening, but the weekly sessions will resume on July 10 and continue through July 21st, at which time the study of the new covenant will be completed. The class has enjoyed a year of unusual interest and enjoyment. The attendance has been exceptionally fine.

W.G.T.U. HOLDS ALL-DAY MEETING ON WEDNESDAY

The Roseburg W.G.T.U. held an all-day meeting Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Lillian Davis to sew for the Children's Farm Home at Corvallis.

A most enjoyable potluck luncheon was served at noon. The next meeting of the group will be announced later by the president, Mrs. C. A. Chamberlin.
