

DUNHAM'S DEFEAT GROCERYMEN, 9-5

Boucock Hams Slaughter National Guard Team by 16-to-3 Score.

Tuesday's Results. Safeway 5, Dunham's 9. Thursday's Game. Boucock's Hams, formerly Dunham's, defeated the National Guard at Sutherlin, Friday's Game. Dunham's vs. Boucock's. Safeway at Oakland.

Dunham's softball nine opened the second half of the City Softball League with a hard-earned victory over Safeway, 9 to 5, last night at Finlay field, and in the nightcap Boucock's Hams, formerly Dunham's Hams, gave a convincing demonstration of power hitting in tumbling the strong National Guard aggregation for an easy victory, 16 to 3.

The completion of the first round of games in the second half finds Hancock Cassidin, Sutherlin, Dunham's and Boucock's temporarily leading the league, with the Elks, first half winners, National Guard, Safeway and Oakland, all tied for the cellar position.

Late Rallies Win. In the opening game of last night's doubleheader, Dunham's had its hands full in downing the stubbornly-resistant Grocerymen. Both teams scored once in the second inning, but the Safewaymen came back to rally twice in the third without aid of a hit to take an early lead. The Transformation clubbed the game in the sixth stanza, pounding out five runs on five hits and added to this margin in the seventh by posting three more runs. Plin Laurance, winning flinger, peddled out a long homerun.

Score: R. H. E. Dunham's 9 10 0 5 2-9 10 2. Safeway 3 12 1 5 4 7.

Boucock's Have Batted. Boucock's Hammers had an easy time of it with the National Guard nine winning going away, 16 to 3, in a game featured by the long-range clouting of Jay Shinn, center-fielder for Boucock's, who pounded out two long homeruns, and of Bud Ellison, winning hurler, who laced out another 4-ply swat.

The losers, playing without the services of their regular team, put up only a feeble resistance to the constant hammering of Uam's offerings, and could do nothing with the confusing slants of Ellison, who let them down with only five bingles. Eight soldier errors aided the winners in running up the large score.

Score: R. H. E. Boucock's 16 12 0 3-16 12 2. Guard 3 12 1 5 4 7.

FELLER AND GORDON GIVEN TOP PRAISE

Pair's Outstanding Work in All-Stars' Battle Noted by Writer.

By GAYLE TALBOT. NEW YORK, July 12.—(AP)—Having watched the American leaguers' mostly New York Yankees splatter the National leaguers' principally Cincinnati Reds in the seventh annual all-star game at Yankee stadium by a score of 3 to 1, the following thoughts arise and stay there:

(1) That in Bobby Feller of the Cleveland Indians, who pitched the final three and two-thirds innings for the winners, baseball is looking at one of the greatest pitchers that ever gave a batter chills with his fast ball, and

(2) That in young Joe (Flash) Gordon, the acrobatic rookie of the Yankees, there is a star performing today who can play second base as brilliantly, perhaps, as it ever has or ever will be played, and, finally

(3) That, otherwise, there still is no great difference between the two leagues, even though yesterday's was the fifth victory scored by the American leaguers in the seven all-star games that have been played for baseball charity.

It was a good game, as some 63,000 spectators agreed. But for an error by Arky Vaughan, Pittsburgh star playing shortstop for the Nationals, the final count would have been 2 to 1, and the winning score would have been provided by Joe DiMaggio's home run that just reached the left-field stand in the fifth inning. That is a bare margin of victory, and the Nationals were not downcast, even though they had set their hearts on winning.

Feller and Gordon were the difference on this day, and the American league had them both. Gordon made three terrific plays. In the sixth he knocked down a drive by Mel Ott with two aboard that cut off at least one run, and a few moments later started the double play that pulled the Americans out of their worst hole of the day. His greatest exploit, however,

SACRAMENTO WINS 10TH STRAIGHT GAME

Streak Advances One-Time Cellar Dwellers to Tie for Fourth Place.

By The Associated Press. Pacific Coast League. Sacramento, surprise outfit of the Pacific Coast Baseball League, was in last place a month ago, but today was tied for fourth place after winning 10 straight.

The rejuvenated Senators continued their winning streak last night at San Francisco, blanking the third-place Seals, 5 to 0, as Southpaw Frolitas kept seven hits well scattered.

Sacramento got five runs on seven hits off Shores, who gave way to Goay in the eighth. Goay was touched for four hits.

Both Sacramento and Oakland are 11 1/2 games behind the first place Los Angeles Angels. The Senators moved into a tie for fourth place ahead of the San Diego Padres, who dropped a 4-to-5 game to Los Angeles at the Angels' park. Oakland lost to Portland, 9 to 6.

The Angel win came in the ninth, when Catcher Collins rapped a short single with the bases loaded.

At Seattle, Hollywood's seventh-place Stars edged Seattle, 3 to 1, as Osborne beat Gregory in a pitchers' duel. Gregory was wild at times and two errors by his mates gave the Stars their winning margin.

The last place Portland club pushed over five runs in the seventh inning at Portland to lane the Oaks. Roseburg, Portland out-felder, was the heavy hitter, driving in three runs with a pair of doubles. Jolley, Oakland outfielder, also had a good night at the plate, batting in three runs with a double and a single. Luka was on the mound for Portland.

President Vic DeLozier of Oakland announced he had sold First Baseman Bob Gibson to the San Francisco Seals for cash. He said

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE—

Without Casual—And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning! The liver should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas builds up your stomach. You get constipated. Your whole system is poisoned and you feel sour, sunk and the world looks pink. A mere bowel movement doesn't get at the cause. It takes those good, old Carter's Little Liver Pills to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." Harmless, gentle, yet amazing in making bile flow freely. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills by name. 25 cents. Stubbornly refuse anything else.
