Daily Devotions

DR. CHARLES A. EDWARDS

Jesus spoke a group of parables to call our attention to a phase of the Kingdom of God which we too often ignore "the seekableness." The Shepherd sought his lost sheep. The woman sought her lost coin. Jesus said "Seek ye first the Kingdom of God." The emphasis is on the word "seek." He has been speaking about seeking worldly goods. He does not condemn us for seeking after material things but He does say, seek spiritual things first. The great error of the world today, is in confusing things that are essential with things that are non-essential. What is the Kingdom of God? It is not geographical, economic, mechanical, or formal. From the teachings of Jesus we conclude that the Kingdom of God is within vital and present. It is the reign of God's spirit in human life, the recognition of His leadership; it is co-operation with Him in the establishment of righteousness and peace and joy. These are the things we are to seek after. Dear Father, cause us to hunger and thirst after these eternal things for Jesus sake. Amen.

Belle Lammers, Eugene, Doris Pendergrass, Portland, Beale Miller, The Dalles, and Sadie Stone, Grants Pass, national delegates.

CIRCUS LIONS FREED,
NO SPECTATOR HURT

SALEM, W. Va., July 19.—(AP)—Collapse of a cage freed two lions during a circus performance and threw more than 250 spectators into a panic as the beasts wandered about in their midst last night.

Trainers of the Lion Ridge show immediately corralled one of the animals but the other remained at large within an athletic field fenced area some 15 minutes.
