GEORGE NEUMER IS MARRIED TO GRACE PECK IN ASTORIA, JULY 1

Of much interest in Roseburg is the wedding of George Neumer, son of Attorney and Mrs. George Neumer, Sr., of McMinnville, and Miss Grace Peck, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Peck, at the Methodist church in Astoria, Ore., at four o'clock Saturday afternoon, July 1.

Rev. H. F. Pemberton performed the ceremony in a beautiful setting of lilies, palms, delphiniums, white larkspur and lighted cathedral candles.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a Chantilly lace gown with full train and scalloped neckline. Her double tulle fingertip veil fell over her face and was held in place by a Juliet cap forming a halo effect with orange blossoms and seed pearls. She carried an arm bouquet of Johanna Hill roses, lilies of the valley and sweet peas.

Miss Phyllis Adams, maid of honor, wore a powder blue blousesette frock styled with a full skirt and pink bows at the neckline. She wore a Juliet cap of seed pearls and carried an arm bouquet of Rapture rosebuds and sweet peas.

Miss Edith Holmes and Miss Betty Neumer, sister of the bridegroom, were bridesmaids and wore attractive in pink marcelled frocks fashioned to match the maid of honor's gown. They carried arm bouquets of delphiniums, sweet peas and roses.

Little Carol Neumer, sister of the bridegroom, and Helen Joy Duncan, of Cincinnati, Ohio, cousin of the bridegroom, preceded the bride and carried large candles to light the altar candles. "At Dawning" and "I Love You Truly" accompanied at the organ by Mrs. C. A. Reed, who played the wedding procession and recessional.

Wilfred Zwick, of Portland, acted as best man to the bridegroom and usher was Earl Repp, Harry Hanson, Jr., of Portland; Andrew Newhouse, of Marshfield, and Russell Isell, of Astoria.

Mrs. Peck, mother of the bride, wore a powder blue lace gown with a corsage of Rapture roses and sweet peas. Mrs. Neumer, mother of the bridegroom, wore a tasha crepe gown with a corsage of geraniums.

A reception at Bywater followed the ceremony. For going away the bride chose a navy silk suit with matching accessories and a corsage of rosebuds. After a wedding trip to Mount Rainier and British Columbia, the couple will be home at 3314 Northeast Stanton street, Portland.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Neumer were graduated from University of Oregon. Mr. Neumer was graduated from law school, his uncle and Mr. Neumer is a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon.

Guests from Roseburg attending the wedding included the bridegroom's maternal grandmother, Mrs. H. Campbell, Mrs. C. D. Glenn, and daughter, Miss Patricia Glenn, and his two cousins, Miss Helen Joy and Robert Duncan, of Cincinnati, who went to the wedding with Mrs. Campbell and the Glenns.

The Neumer family is very well known here, having formerly resided in Roseburg. Mrs. George Neumer, Sr., is a daughter of Mrs. H. Campbell. Mr. Neumer Sr., was formerly district attorney for Douglas county.
