EPISCOPAL CHURCH FAIR IS DELIGHTFUL AFFAIR OF WEDNESDAY

St. George's Episcopal church fair was a very delightful event of Wednesday evening at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Middelburg, "The Lowlands," in Oaks addition. The gardens were lighted with numerous Japanese lanterns and colored lights. A large number of members of the church and friends called at the home during the evening hours.

Mrs. Middelburg acted as general chairman of the affair with J. H. Hennessy, E. A. Post and E. T. Nelson in charge of the wieners on toast, Mrs. L. B. Harkick, Mrs. Paul Jenkins and Mrs. A. M. Knudson in charge of the coffee booth; Mrs. J. B. Hennessy had charge of the ice cream and Mrs. E. T. Nelson and Mrs. L. A. Dillard in charge of punch. Colorful balloons were sold by the younger children and a fish pond was maintained by some of the girls of the church.

Palms, hand writing and fortunes by tea leaves were read by Miss Hulda Gjevne and Mrs. Hilda Peterson. The cake awarded in the Chinese auction sale went to Mrs. J. B. Hennessy.

Mrs. T. G. Watson and Mrs. Paul Jenkins were joint chairmen of the evening's entertainment, which was opened with a baby parade led by a donkey in charge of George Pendo. Children taking part in the parade included Henrietta Smith, Brian Booth, Ralph Sippel Jr., Mollie Jean Maddox, Paula Helweg, Howard Turner, Kenny Norgorsten and Velda Mae Rath. The children presented a dance, followed by a tap dance by Betty Jean Mountford; Mexican hat dance by Arlene Watson and Betty Jean Hendricks; ballet dance by Cynthia Sue Turner, dance by Clippo the clown, in charge of Mrs. T. G. Watson; tap dance by Ruth Ann Wahl and Georgene Shanklin; trumpet solos by Ward Cummings; musical numbers by James and Alvin Knudson and Jimmy Moran. The numbers were accompanied by Miss Virginia Wright.

HARRIET CATHERINE BOOTH CELEBRATES EIGHTH BIRTHDAY ANNIVERSARY

Harriet Catherine Booth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harrie W. Booth, celebrated her eighth birthday anniversary at a very delightful party at her home in Laurelwood Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Booth, hostess, was assisted during the afternoon by her sister, Mrs. Stewart Cooper, Mrs. Clyde Carstens, Mrs. Paul Helweg and Mrs. Edwin Booth.

The basement of the home was attractively decorated to carry out the carnival motif. Booths for punch, ice cream, birthday cake and favors were maintained and during the afternoon games were played in the beautiful garden of the home.
