Today's Pattern

Cape-Sleeves Do Wonders For Large-Size Figures

Cape-like sleeves feel delightfully cool on torrid days, and the way they blow and flutter makes you look cool and graceful. This charming dress, pattern 8540, has everything else you like, too—a rounded, long-line skirt, a bodice trimmed the most trim and shirred up to shoulder portions so that it fits perfectly, with no tightness and no bulkiness over the bust. And it has a cool deep V-neckline, finished with a narrow roll collar. It is such a beautifully simple, well-balanced design, smart for street and informal afternoon both. It is practically guaranteed to subtract pounds from your appearance. Choose soft materials for this, because they are more slenderizing, and gather smoothly. Clifton, georgette, voile and pure-dye silk will look lovely made up this way. Pattern 8540 is designed for sizes 26, 28, 30, 32, 34, 36, 38, 40 and 42. Size 28 requires 5 1/2 yards of 39-inch material.

The new SPRING and SUMMER PATTERN BOOK, 32 pages of attractive designs for every size and every occasion is now ready. Photographs show dresses made from these patterns being worn; a feature you will enjoy. Let the charming designs in this new book help you in your sewing. One pattern and the new Spring and Summer Pattern Book—25 cents. Pattern or book alone—15 cents. Send your order to the News-Review, Pattern Department, Roseburg, Oregon.

Billed at Indian Theatre

The "Morgan Family" coming to the Indian theatre Tuesday only is considered the most spirited interpreters in the west today of the range. Their careers from early days to their present day top ranking in screen and radio have been made possible by the genuine qualities of the typical cowboy background that is so unmistakably theirs. The star of the troupe is "Little Mary Morgan," age five, whose pleasing voice and warm personality has made her the "Shirley Temple of Radio." Duke, age three, is the youngest cowboy to wear chaps, and yodel. Uncle Hank is the world's champion fiddler. The remainder of the all-star troupe consists of Pop, Ruby, Robert, Charlie and Dick.
